The Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Person Note for Uriah Smith

IGI has possible lineage under "Uriah Smith" parents Hezekiah Smith and Abigail Morehouse gr parents, Thomas Smith and Ada Raymond
gr. gr parents: Rev. Thomas Smith and Hannah Camp maternal grandparents: James Morehouse and Ann Baxter
gr. gr parents: Lemuel Morehouse and Mary Boulton
All of Ridgefield, Milford, or Norwalk

Abigail would be distant relative of David Morehouse who also came to Northmoreland, Luzerne Co., Pa with his family. This Smith family seems to be coming more from the Ridgefield area, than Norwalk, but they are only a few miles apart, and Ridgefield was started by Norwalk families anyway.

Gideon Morehouse, David's ancestor was a brother to Thomas Morehouse, who was Abigail's ancestor.

Uriah's siblings were: James, Nancy, Ada, Noah, Parmenas, Betsy, Isaac, Jeremiah, and Morehouse all born at Ridgefield, except for Morehouse who was born in Luzerne Co., PA
No doubt we have the right "Uriah Smith".....hope we have the right "Sally Fitch"

.....

Also if Uriah is a son of Hezekiah, he is in the family who co-owned the Keeler Ferry operation with Paul Keeler Jr.

On January 1, 1810 there were letters in the WilkesBarre Postoffice for HEZEKIAH SMITH, JEREMIAH SMITH, BETSEY SMITH, and ABRAHAM SMITH
Hezekiah, father of Uriah, Jeremiah and Betsey, siblings
Not sure where Abraham might come in.

Not sure if the long lineage would be correct. Hezekiah is called Hezekiah Smith, Jr. in the records found in "The History of Ridgefield" by John Rockwell. He lists the same children as those above and note that the last child listed in this book, recorded in Ridgefield was Jeremiah who was born in 1786, just about the time they came to PA. Children recorded on page 498.

Isaac Smith, when a boy, in crossing the river at Keeler's Ferry on the ice with a hand sled, loaded with flax, carelessly ran into an air hole. Noah Smith happened to see the flax drifting down stream, knowing his brother must be in the river, instantly ran and jumped in after him, got hold of him and swam to the edge of the ice where by the timely assistance of URIAH SMITH, another brother, and some other persons, both were rescued from a watery grave. (Note the 3 brothers, Isaac, Noah, and Uriah)

Hi Betty,

Enclosed are a couple versions of the title page and the index page.

I burned a CD with just the title page but changed the Georgia Ref to Tahoma. So hopefully you can open this page.

So now that way you have the title page with by name on it. HA! Your book will be official.

Have a good day.

Family Reunion Newsletter

Winter 1997

Helen Chloe Fitch, daughter of David N. Fitch, at about age 14. As a child in the 1920's, her nephew, Stephen D. Fitch, thought that Helen was really special...a very progressive (liberated) type who wore men's tall lace-up boots, which he coveted. (c. 1906)

Lost "Beets Pickles" Recipe

Thanks to Alice Deck, who got it from Carolyn Davis at the '94 Reunion, we can pass along the recipe for the Fitch beet pickles (see page 13 of Fall '93 Newsletter.)

"Strain and measure the juice from any size can of sliced beets. Add an equal amount of sugar and half the amount of vinegar to the juice and boil with a teaspoon of whole allspice. Pour over beets and let stand."

Eel River Cemetery

More than a century ago, area families sought solace as they buried their relatives in a small cemetery along one of northwest Allen Counties busiest roads.

Solace my have been found in the knowledge that their loved ones were gone but wouldn't be forgotten as long as the road connecting Heller's Corners and the Blue and Gray Highway (now U.S. 33) was well travelled.

As times changed and bridges were built over the Eel River, the once-busy road became a back road. The community of Heller's Corners all but disappeared, leaving only a few houses, a small pond and the Wesley Chapel Methodist Church. See Cemetery - Page 17

Without their generous financial support of the Newsletter, we would be hard pressed to continue its annual publication and distribution to the 400 families descended from Nathaniel and Sarah Fitch.

How Can You Help?

More financial help wouldn't hurt. I am projecting a deficit of almost $700 after this newletter is mailed. You may rest assured that as long as I have Fitch history to share, there will be a Fitch Newsletter, and I will do my best to see that every descendant family gets a copy, even if I have to fund it myself. (It has never really been self-supporting, as my late mother, Lucille Ozanne Cassell, always sent a check for what-ever annual shortfall occurred.)

More family photos and stories would also be appreciated. Thanks to Alice Deck and Anne Nobis, I have some "new" old Fitch photos to share. Others sent me clippings and stories. Thank you all! But we need more! The older, the better; but, with so many young kin, family stories and photos from the '30's, '40's and 50's would be great.

And finally, we need to keep our vital records up-to-date. Who's getting married to whom? Who's having children? Who's moving? Who's divorced? Who's passed on? As my old IBM computer finally gave out this summer and I've moved to a Mac-based system, I'll be creating a new data base for the family's vital records this spring. It would be great to have updates from all the branches of the family for this project. The spring of 1994 was the last time that we did a comprehensive update.

For each family member, including those who join the family through marriage or adoption, I need a first name, middle initial and last name, address, and date and place of birth. Dates of marriage or death, if applicable.

My address and phone number are on page 20.

 IMPORTANT FOOTNOTE

Last year we spent $84.55 reprinting and remailing newsletters to kin who had moved and had not informed us. Our 3rd class mailing permit allows us to secure the forwarding address, if it is still available, of kin who have moved. We pay $.50 for each address correction, and the Post Office does not return the newsletter that we originally sent out. In some cases, the forwarding address has expired, and I have to make a phone call to a related family member to get the new address.

All of this costs money and takes time, neither of which is abundant right now. (At 54, I'm in graduate school studying to become an elementary school teacher.) It would be greatly appreciated if more of you would send me address changes as they occur, both your own and those of others in your family. Many thanks in advance.

The Next Fitch Family Reunion

Most of those who replied to our question in the last Newsletter about when to hold the next Fitch Reunion thought that 1999 would be best. That would be five years after the last Reunion in 1994. Since many people would have to travel some distance to get to Fort Wayne, it was thought that more frequent reunions might dilute attendance.

Plus, the effort that planning a Reunion requires is significant for the local Fort Wayne Fitch volunteers.

And, who knows? Maybe by then the Fitch Homestead will be back in Fitch family hands. We hope so.

Now we need to know what's the best date for a Fitch Reunion in 1999. Historically, they were held on a weekend close to the 4th of July, although the 1994 Reunion was on Saturday, August 20.

We are thinking about having a casual reception on Friday evening for those who can make it, with the actual Reunion on Saturday afternoon. Maybe a restaurant or hotel dinner on Saturday evening, with a casual brunch gathering on Sunday morning.

What do you think?

About Allen Fitch

South St. Paul Stockyards Surround Pioneer's Home

(An article from the Minneapolis Tribune in 1948 or 49)

South St. Paul's sprawling stockyards have grown up and almost surrounded the frame house at 101 Fourth Avenue N. But Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fitch who built it back at the turn of the century expect to live out the rest of their days in it.

Fitch, still erect at 92, came to South St. Paul in 1887 to begin the first livestock commission business with his brother, the late Charles Fitch. "We had a stockyard in Clarksville, Iowa, but Iowa was pretty slow," he said, recalling the early days.

And when cattle had to be transported north to a buyer in Grafton, N.D., for instance the trip was a long one and a hard one, Fitch said. The train would stop in Minneapolis or St. Paul so the cattle cold be fed and watered. When the Fitch brothers decided to move their business, they picked South St. Paul.

"There was a company here, Brown and Spear, it was called -- we bought our bookkeeping equipment from them." Today, the firm is known as Brown and Bigelow, with a gigantic plant on University Avenue between the Twin Cities.

The Fitch brothers bought a mimeograph machine and sent out hundreds of letters. Before long, business was booming.

That's when Fitch went back to Iowa and married Emma Green (May 25, 1893). They've been married 55 years now. "And we're still happy, " beamed 88 year old Mrs. Fitch.

Fitch recalls when the Mississippi River flooded the stockyards. Men worked into the night for many nights, placing sandbags to stop the flow of water and save the stock.

He knows the winter of 1887-88 was "absolutely the coldest in history." He remembers the dances held at South Park and the popularity of the meals at Mrs. McCauleffe's boarding house.

Mrs. Fitch recalls the many blocks she had to walk making church collections the fact that the town "wanted Al to run for mayor."

"My brother Charlie was mayor, but I didn't run because I had enough trouble without that," he said.

Today, Fitch and Co. still has an office in the Exchange building, overlooking the yards.

But, it's Oakley Fitch, the son of Charles, who is in charge today. "We don't do much anymore but just sit," Fitch said. "Most of our friends have passed on," echoed Mrs. Fitch.

Sometimes, Fitch walks down to take a look at the yards. But mostly, the two stay up on the hill, oblivious to the bustle down below them.

(Allen died in 1952 at 95 years old, while Emma lived to be 94. They had no children.)

An Excerpt from the:

Memoirs of Charles Oakley Fitch

(Charles Oakley Fitch, known as "Oak," was the son of Charles and Lou Ann Fitch and the grandson of Nathaniel and Sarah Fitch.)

My father and mother came by prairie schooner to northern Iowa, Butler County, near what is now Clarksville, Iowa, between Clarksville and Plainfield (shortly after they were married on April 18, 1868). They built a one room log cabin on the prairie. It was rugged living on the prairie. There was no wood, and during the winter they twisted hay into bundles and burned it to keep warm. One winter they burned corn, as it was not worth anything anyhow.

Before father left Indiana, he went with some of his neighbor boys to a college at Ft. Wayne. My uncle Allen (Fitch) told me once that he visited Charlie at the college, and that these tall raw boned country boys all chewed tobacco in school and spit most anywhere. Anyhow, father got a teacher's certificate, and when the country around him in Iowa settled up some, he taught school for a number of years in the little country school house and also had sing fests nights with all the neighbors.

Mother was midwife to the wives of the Iowa settlers, and, when the call came, she threw her side saddle on the mare, day or night and away she went.

Father kept a diary each day, temperature, etc. One item one day: "Shot two prairie chickens on the South 10." Another day: "Shot ducks, etc." Another item: "Hauled my hogs to town today and sold them for two cents per pound, live weight." Very cheap compared to present day's prices.

My uncle Allen came from Indiana and settle on land nearby but did not get married until many years later, when he married Emma Lewillian Green on May 25, 1893, when he moved to Minnesota. He batched it and also spent a great deal of his time at father's place.

There were lots of wolves, raccoons, etc. which they killed, and at one time father had 30 dogs of different kinds for hunting. Mother used to have long, narrow pans to bake corn bread in every day to feed the dogs. They saved the pelts, especially the raccoons.

There was a big spring on the farm, and Father had it walled up so as to make a large pool some 20 feet square and 12 feet deep. He was dealing in horses then and had a big bunch of them, some of them with colts by their sides. When they came to drink, it was my older brother Nathaniel's job to see that the colts did not get kicked into the pool. One day Nat got kicked in. Father missed him and went to the pool and saw him lying on the bottom of the pool. He dove in and brought him up and with the assistance of Mother and (sister) May, they rolled him over a barrel to get the water out of his lungs, but to no avail.

I can remember the funeral, as Harry (another brother) and I had new shoes and new straw hats. The casket was placed in a lumber wagon, and Nat was buried in a small country cemetery, one of the first to be buried there. Nat had just turned 8 a few days before he died.

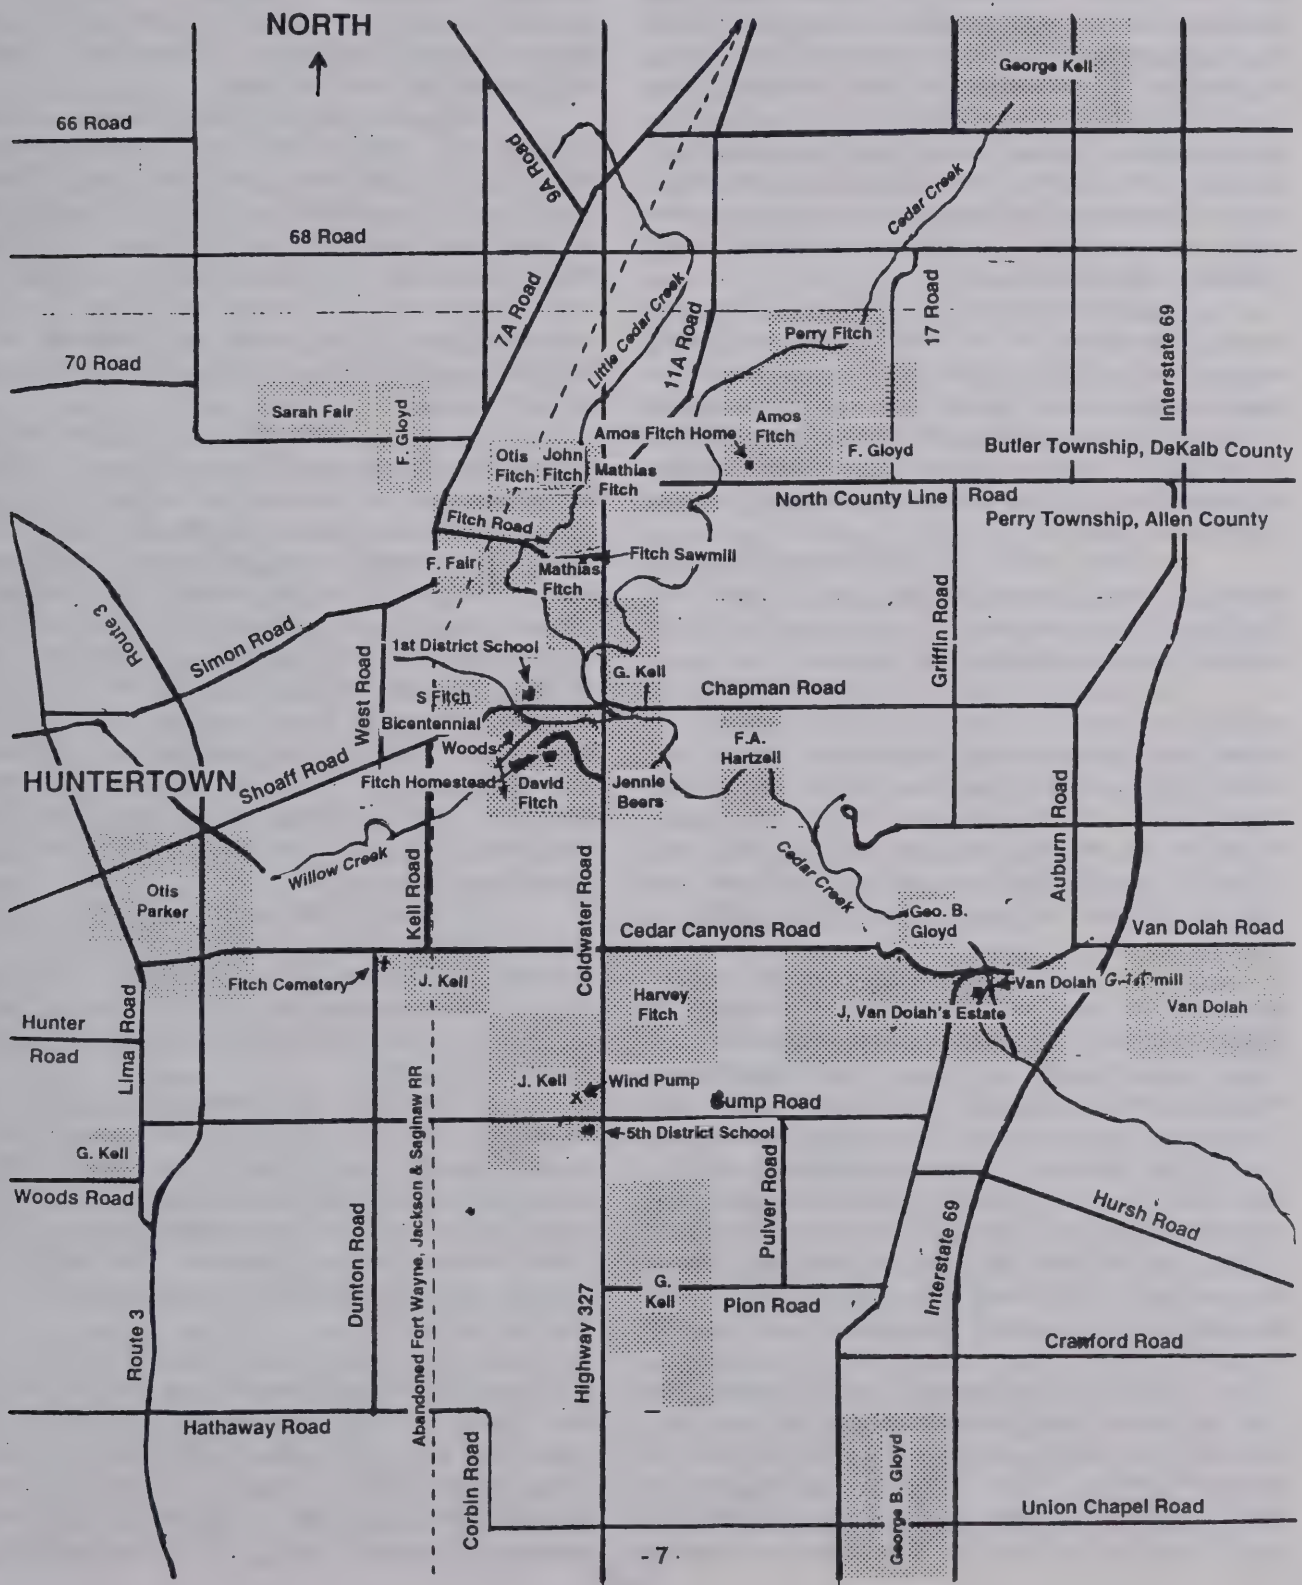
Another Fitch Reunion, possibly in 1933. If you can identify anyone in these photos, mark up a copy of this page and send it to the Fitch Family Historian.

Nathaniel & Sarah Fitch Family Map

Shaded areas represent land in Allen and DeKalb Counties that was owned by the Fitch family or its relatives around 1880.

The locations of the mills, schools, houses, etc. are approximate.

As a indication of size, the Fitch Homestead quadrant is 160 acres.



Recollections

The Stratton Family

by Marguerite Stratton Nobles, granddaughter of Sarah Elizabeth Fitch and Irvin Stratton. Written in 1974.

Any stories about the Stratton family for the most part have to be about Sarah Elizabeth Fitch Stratton. She was born 10th in the family of Nathaniel and Sarah Elizabeth Fitch (on March 29, 1855) and was the first child born in the new house, known now as the Fitch Homestead. She went to the Fitch School and must have spent some time at the Seminary, for she recalled one of her big brothers putting her on the rail fence to watch the Union troops marching from Coldwater with fife and drum and supply wagons to entrain at Fort Wayne. At some time she must have spent some time at Valpariso University and at Hillsdale College in Michigan.

When her older sister, Jennie Fitch Beers, was teaching in Wabash in 1877 or 1878, Sarah went to Wabash to go to school and to help Jennie with her children and her house. At Wabash she met a young man, Irvin Franklin Stratton, who was reading law with his brother-in-law, Alvah Taylor. Later Irvin, with his brother Jerome, set up a law practice at Fort Wayne and subsequently won a judgeship in Allen County.

Irvin often went to visit Sarah during those years. She taught school in several townships, and Jerome Gloyd (her sister Fitelia's husband) was always urging her to take a school that had bad discipline problems.

She recalled one summer at home when she helped with the building of the Amos Fitch house. She and her mother cooked for the workers, and she drove a wagon over to Amos' each day with their noon dinner. She and her sisterIda both taught at country schools. Ida was a graduate of Fort Wayne College and also taught at New Haven, where she met Melville Mason, who later graduated from Michigan Dentistry College. Ida and Mel were married in 1890.

Sarah and Irvin were married at a double wedding with her sister Emma and Allen Hartzell on December 28, 1881. Sarah wore a plum colored velvet gown with a white bonnet with seed pearls. Her sister Fitelia was a beautiful seamstress and had taught her how to sew. I think that the velvet gown later became a suit for her oldest son Leander.

The folks built a house on Washington Avenue, near Broadway, in Fort Wayne. Irvin was always most interested in horses and especially the trotters. There were always races at local fairs, and the track was used at Sweeney Park. I think Sarah was a little more conservative and did not care too much about money spent for such horses.

Irvin was having problems with his brother, who liked his bottle a little too much. It was not good for a judge to be trying to help out with him, so the folks sold out and went to Wichita, Kansas, where Irvin had relatives and Sarah had friends. Sarah was closer to Aunt Frank (her sister Francelia Fitch Fair), and I recalled many trips to Alden, Kansas, and visits from the Fair family.

A home was built there, and my early years were at that house. The barn and carriage house were built before the main house, and Harold (her younger brother) was born in the barn where the family had set up housekeeping until the main house was built. This was 1888.

My memories of the house are of a large garden on one side with three beautiful apricot trees next to the house for good eating and shade. Sarah never lived any place that she did not soon have a garden and trees and flowering plants in the house. On the other side past the drive was the peach orchard and strawberry beds.

Kansas was prairie, and the back yard was bare and windswept. Plenty of wind too. I remember seeing a whole line of clothes blown away. That area of Wichita was College Hill, and the folks were there during the Boom and Dust years. I think the folks finally lost a lot of money there. Sarah said that when Oklahoma Territory was opened up, she wanted to go and try for land. Irvin had been asked to go for they said he could eventually be the governor because of his legal training. He was then a judge in Wichita.

The fever to move on West was across the land, and Irvin wanted to go to California. Some of his family had already gone on there and were urging him to come too. A railway car was used, and the stock, the two race horses, and household goods they wanted, with Leander and Irvin went on west to San Bernadino. In a few days a telegram came that Irvin had been killed. He was exercising one of the horses with the sulky and was hit by an electric train. The horse was destroyed, and Irvin only lived a few hours. Irvin had been crippled in early years by a horse, and that might have had something to do with his not controlling the horse. Mother always felt that she should have gone on to California; that she could have won a lawsuit there with the rail company. And that was the end of our Kansas years.

We lived at Lakeside in Fort Wayne from the spring of 1902 until 1909. Those were good years in some ways and in others very difficult for Sarah. She did anything to make a home and keep her family together. For the first year we lived with Ida and Mel Mason, but that wasn't good for either family.

Mother finally built a house on the Loree side of the property that Aunt Ida owned, and we made that our home for the next years. Sarah did the washing for Mel's dental office and took care of Ida's house. She cared for some elderly women and made a home for them. I recall Della Gloyd lived with us a good many years until she was too ill to work. Audrey Fitch spent some time with us too, until she was married.

Leander had a very serious illness while there. The second time he had rheumatic fever, and we nearly lost him. He always wanted to go back west, and he did go and spend some time at the Fairs, where he was very happy. Harold had to drop out of school to help out, and he worked as a call boy for the railroad and later was with a car tracing company for several years. That work took him to Milwaukee, and he was determined to have more education. So the next we knew, he was in Colorado working his way to go to a prep school to take up mining.

I went to Lakeside School and Clay School, and my older sister Helen only had one year of high school before we left Fort Wayne. I loved the times we got to go to the country, and Sarah took we two girls and spent several summers with Grandmother (Nathaniel's widow).

I remember reunions at that home under the big walnut tree in the yard, several at Ame's home, Mathias', the Gloyds' and even the Hartzell home at New Haven. Sarah always went to help with harvesting times with her various sisters, and I remember a "barn-raising" at the Gloyds' place. Those were good years to remember.

The two boys in the family wound up at the steel mill at the then new Gary, Indiana, and we decided to go there and make a home and help them as well as ourselves. We had really been too close to Aunt Ida and under her dominance too long, and Sarah felt she could and would do better on her own.

I loved the years that I went to high school: It was a new school, a new system and such an adventure. Helen graduated there head of her class. Harold jammed a lot of courses into one year and was able to enter Purdue University. I did not do so well grade-wise, but as I used to tell Sarah, "I passed!"

Sarah built a large house there for there were many young men to room and board that worked in the several plants and mills. She worked very hard, but she was a wonderful manager, and we always had good food and money to do the things that the other school children did and had. Harold and I have been so glad that in her later years we were able to pay her back for all that.

Leander and Helen both married while there at Gary, and they had families and their own lives to work for. Leander's wife Edna was ill, and he wanted to go west after her death (in August 1917). Helen and her husband, Claude Bowlby, had many moves...Hammond, Lafayette, Cincinnati and finally back to Fort Wayne.

I got two years of college at an expression school in Chicago, lived at home and commuted each day. I have always been a voracious reader and although music could have been my best love, we did not have money enough for that expensive education. So speech was the next best thing, and school teaching. I did not do too badly at that.

Sarah and I have always been so proud of the things that Harold (we called him "Strat") has been able to do with his life. From Purdue he wound up in the Isaac Johnson Foundry in New York and was soon plant superintendent there.

In World War I the German liner Leviathan had been impounded in New York harbor, but not before the crew had wrecked her engines. Strat took his pattern makers from the plant, and they rebuilt all of that, and the liner was used as a troop ship during the rest of the war.

In 1920 Strat moved to a foundry in McKeesport, Pennsylvania. In 1928 he and a man from Parkersburg, West Virginia, were urged by the banks to take over a foundry there that was not making it. They bought into it on the steps of the Court House, and it has been Mountain State Steel Foundry since 1928.

And it has been all his know-how and push that has done it. I think that he is a throw-back to his grandfather Nathaniel Fitch. When he gets to pushing a little too much, I tell him, "His Fitch is showing."

Leander go Sarah and me to move with him to Montana. He has remained there ever since and has done his beloved ranching and lived a pretty good life, and raised a nice family.

I taught at a country school and then worked in the county superintendent office. A young man from the War in Europe (i.e. WWI) was a teacher in the high school, and we were quite attracted to each other. Clarence Nobles and I were married in Urbana, Illinois, on July 3, 1920, and we taught one year in Illinois.

We then went to Champaign for him to finish his degrees. Sarah was with us at that time, and from there we went to Virginia, at Virginia Polytechnic Institute. Clarence became very ill there, and the War caught up with the young lieutenant.

We had only eight years together, and I had a young man to raise (Robert Nobles). Sarah was like a brick wall at my back and said, "You do not stop here." We went to Peabody, at Nashville, and I got my degree there. Then we were going to go with Strat and make our home in Parkersburg. I to teach, I thought, but I wound up in the foundry too and loved it.

And so the English teacher wound up as office manager of a steel foundry. I had no office experience, but with the help of the auditors, I did a good job on the books and hanging onto money.

Strat never married. He had met a girl in New York, and they had planned to marry, but she died suddenly, and no other girl came along to take that place. He wanted me to come to Parkersburg, and we would both make a home for Sarah, ourselves and my son.

My son Bob had always had trouble with asthma, so we decided to send him to a private school in Asheville. It was fine for his health and for his education. He finished there and after that did two degrees at M.I.T. becoming an aeronautical engineer.

We almost lost him when he was on the flying boat, the Mars, when the test pilot crashed, and the plane broke up in Chesapeake Bay. Bob was rescued and came through with a minor concussion. He later worked at Convair in Texas and after a time decided that, if we expected him to help out at the foundry, he had better come there while Strat was still there. He is now vice president and manager there and is doing a job that we are proud of.

I made Strat work until he was 72, so that I could retire at 65. We played a lot of golf and did some traveling, including some trips to Florida, where we built a home in 1948 and went to live year-round in 1960. Strat would never have retired if he had stayed close to the foundry.

Sarah lived with us until she passed away in 1958 at the age of 103.

(Marguerite Stratton Nobles died in 1980, at the age of 84.)

Marie Fitch Houser and Arthur Houser

by Richard Houser, grandson of Amos and Nancy Fitch

I can't tell you much about (my parents) Marie and Arthur's courtship because there was little or no discussion on those matters in our household -- perhaps we kids weren't cleared for that information.

Before they were married (on October 16, 1916) and for some years after, Arthur never owned a car, and I could never figure out how he traveled from Garrett to Fort Wayne. There was a flag stop at Station 32 near the old Five Points Schoolhouse. I can remember seeing them lighting a newspaper and placing it on the tracks to flag the interurban from Fort Wayne at night.

I do remember the first car Arthur bought -- a used Elgin touring car from Uncle Rolland (Fitch). On the first driving lession from Uncle Rol, he promptly drove it into a ditch north of Garrett.

Later, Arthur and Marie made a point of showing us kids (Richard, Margaret and Joan) the greatness and the scenic wonders of this great country of ours. We shall never forget trips around the Great Lakes, to Gettysburg, Washington, Monticello, Rockies, Grand Canyon, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle and the Badlands.

(From an article in The Garrett (Indiana) Clipper, April 26, 1984) After working as a clerk in the B&O storekeeper's office, at age 27 Arthur formed a partnership with Roy Reyher in 1907 to engage in the men's clothing business in a small wooden store at the southwest corner of Quincy and Randolph in Garrett. A year later Reyner quit the business, and in 1915 Arthur erected a two-story brick building at 125 Randolph Street, where his store occupied the south half of the first floor. At 36, with some financial security, Arthur married Marie Fitch (then 25), and they set up housekeeping in the apartment over the store.

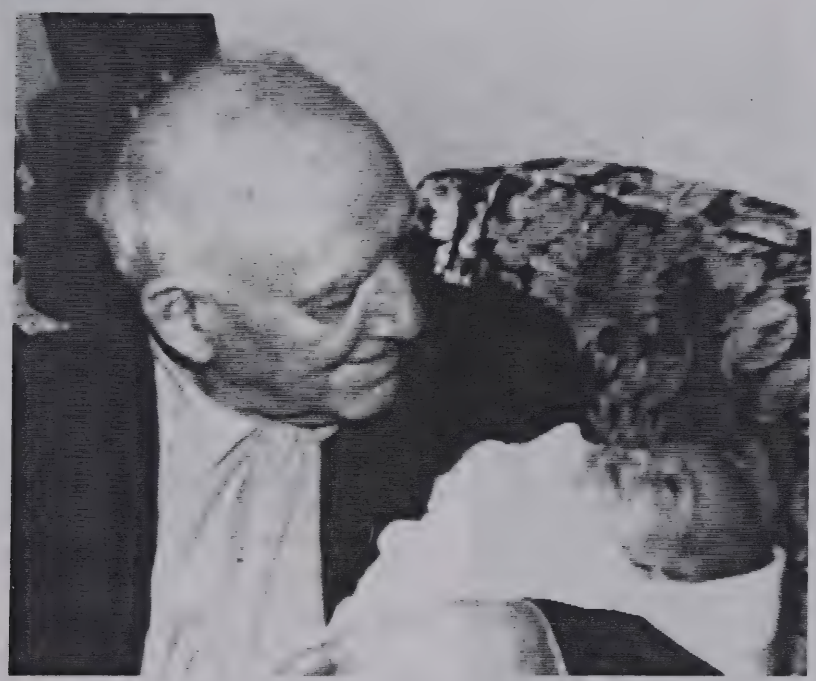
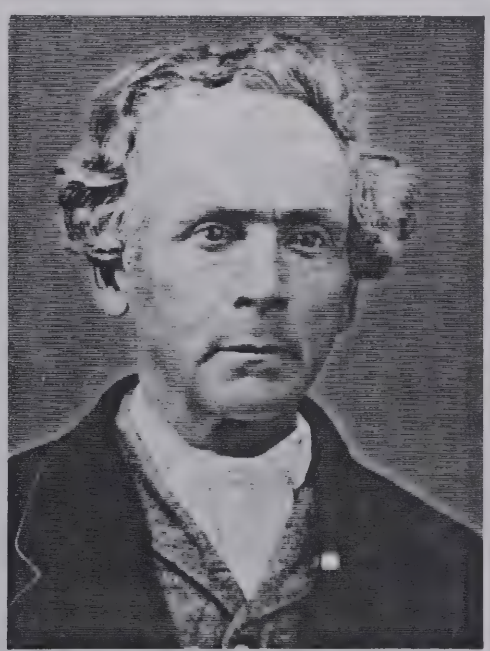
A formal photo of Sarah Elizabeth DeLong Fitch, wife of Nathaniel Fitch. Probably taken by Shoaff Photographers of Fort Wayne, as it is somewhat similar to "Jennie's Portrait" of Sarah that was prepared by Shoaff in the 1870's. (See page 3 of the Fall 1993 Newsletter.)



80 years after the above photo, Victor W. Fitch holds his first great grand child, Erika Lawrence. Six generations had passed since that of Nathaniel and Sarah Fitch. (March 1977)



Nathaniel Fitch, the progenitor of our Fitch family line. This photo, from the Charles Fitch family, is slightly different from the others we have seen in that no retouching of his features or clothing has been done.

The Fitch Homestead, built in 1855 on Coldwater Road in Huntertown, Indiana. Note the clapboarded windows on the second floor and the missing front door framing. Any ideas as to what was going on? (Date unknown)

The Fitch Homestead, showing the end and attached ell on the rear. (Taken at the same time as the above photo)

The log beams that support the first floor of the Fitch Homestead. (Note that they are not sawed timbers but rough logs.)

Fitch Heirlooms

An inlaid wooden music box given to Sarah Fitch by her sons. (Date unknown)

A foot-operated sewing machine of a very early variety that belonged to Sarah Fitch. Said to be the oldest sewing machine in Perry County.

John A. Fitch, son of Warren and Betty Fitch and a great, great, great grandson of Nathaniel and Sarah Fitch, rests his foot upon a mill stone from the Fitch Mill, which had been relocated to the Fort Wayne Historical Society premises. All the photos on this page were taken by Betty Fitch in the mid-1970's.

The home of Mathias Fitch on Fitch Road in northern Allen County was built in 1878 and has since been torn down. (Photo taken in mid-1970's)

Mathias and Frances Fitch stand in the doorway of their house on Fitch Road. This doorway can be located on the above photo just to the left of the one-story, rear ell. (Date unknown)

While this was the home of Harvey and Etta Fitch for a time, it had previously been Nathaniel Fitch's blacksmith shop. It was located on the north side of the Homestead at the bottom of a small hill and is long gone. The area is now woodlands.

Family Photos &:

Family Heirloom Books

In the mid-1960's I visited my grandmother, Margie Beers Ozanne, at the home in which she had lived for 60 years. The property had been taken by eminent domain for a new post office, and she was preparing to move out. We spent an evening in the attic prowling through a lifetime collection of family materials.

While she could identify much of what we saw, I remember that she puzzled over some things, including a number of very old photos. "I know that she's "family," but I'm not sure who she is."

I was fortunate that my mother lived to be 83 and that she was able to identify most of our family heirlooms and photos and to tell some stories about them.

As a result, I felt an obligation to make sure that my son, who is 49 years younger than I am, will be as fortunate as I was. I am passing along what I've done to record my family heritage to all my Fitch kin, in the hopes that your descendants or relatives a hundred years from now will not puzzle over an old photo of "family" or an heirloom that was lovingly kept for generations.

First, I unearthed and researched all our old family photos up through the 1960's. After applying identification labels to the photos' backs, I placed them in photo albums with identical labels on the acetate sleeves. This way the photo does not have to be removed to read the label..

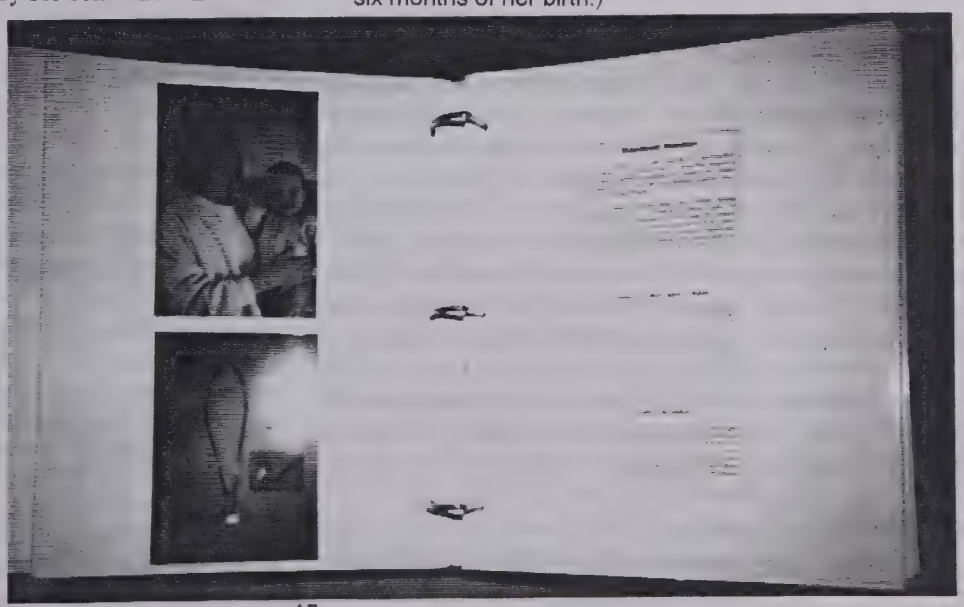
Second, I created an "Family Heirloom Book" from a large photo album. I took photos of all the family heirlooms, including meaningful things that my wife and I have acquired or made. Every other page is a stiff paper on which I have printed the origins, stories and meaning of the facing photos. I've included family recipes (e.g. our home-made wedding cake) with photos of the various dishes.

Unlike photos, many heirlooms do not lend themselves to being written on, so this is a way to identify tools, furniture, toys, china, silver and clothing. We have a blanket that was woven at the Fitch Homestead from Fitch wool. Much used, it would be easy for someone who does not know its provenance to discard it in the distant future.

It's also a way to display heirlooms that are buried deep in cedar chests or the attic, without having to dig them out when someone asks about them. Multiple books for multiple children provide means to share the family history and heirlooms, even when the actual item is one-of-a-kind.

Of course, it's important to keep it "up-to-date" as you acquire "new" family heirlooms.

The earliest known photo of Amos Fitch, Nathaniel and Sarah Fitch's 6th child, who was born in 1849. Amos had yet to grow his distinctive beard, which is evident in an early stage in the photo on page 9 of the Winter '95 Newsletter, so he was probably around 20 years old in this photo. (Note: Amos was their 5th child to live to adulthood. Nancy, who was born in 1848, died within six months of her birth.)



A photo and a description page from the Cassell Family Heirloom book: Above is Bernadine, my wife, holding our son Alex, who is wearing a hand-made woolen sweater from Sr. M. Alma Louise (Mary Louise Fitch). Below is a gold locket and chain that belonged to Jennie Fitch. Inside the locket is a plaited lock of blond hair, which belonged to a Perry County beau who marched off to the Civil War. Also below is a gold sewing thimble engraved with "MJFB - 99", which belonged to Jennie, whose given name was Mary Jane Fitch and who was married to Levi Beers in 1873; thus "MJFB".

The Preacher's Note

(In October 1991 I came into possession of my great uncle Kenneth Fitch Beers' autobiography, which I subsequently published. Four years later, I found a separate but related letter among my late mother's papers. The 100-year old letter had been passed from Levi and Jennie Fitch Beers to their daughter (my grandmother) and then on to my mother. While the letter is interesting, it's context and importance to Levi and Jennie would have been lost without Kenneth's story. This illustrates the importance of writing down or recording family stories.)

From Kenneth Beers' The Preacher's Boy: page 52

In this chapter my father takes the center of the stage, his troubles being almost as numerous as those that fell to the lot of ancient Job, except that Job had boils. There was another difference. Job was a man of wealth, my father was a minister of the gospel, a hand to mouth existence at its best in those early days of Methodism in Western Pennsylvania.

Our family had made few staunch friends. There were some persons in each town (where he ministered) who recognized superior qualities of education and culture with which nature and hard work had endowed my parents, and their friendship was a cherished thing.

When my father saw that for his children's sake he must seek other fields, he borrowed $2,000 from a friend in Brookville. One thousand was all he needed for building purposes, but his friend preferred to keep the two thousand intact, so my father accepted the loan. In Harvey (where the family had moved), he loaned in turn the second thousand to a down state resident.

It was our custom to keep valuable papers in our home in a strong box. Banks nearby were a convenience we did not have. The note given for the second thousand was in a purse in the kitchen. Careless perhaps, but preachers in general had few papers of value in those days. Anyway, we thought everyone was honest.

This time our wash woman was the exception to the honest rule. She saw the box, opened it and took the purse and its contents to her home. Soon it was missed. All clues pointed toward this woman. Father called at her home, she saw him coming and hastily burned the papers in her stove. She denied knowing anything of the purse.

Later she confessed her crime. The confession was not enough to satisfy the maker of the note. He insisted on waiting to pay the $1000.00 until the note was legally outlawed. For ten years, according to Illinois law, my father had this note over his head and the interest to pay.

(The letter that had been so carefully preserved all these years was a letter from the thief to Jennie. The spelling and punctuation is that of the writer.)

Dear Mrs. Beers,

Hear in the silence of my room at midnight I seat myself to write a few lines you will be surprised I know, but I feel as though I could not leave without doing it as I am about to do for part's unknown. I am the one that took your money. I started for your house on that day to ask for aid as we were almost destitute and my daughter lay very sick and I had no means to get medicine, coal or food. I went to the door and knocked. No one came. I turned the knob and went in and there before my eyes on a desk lay a pocket-book. The first thought I had - it is for me. I just opened it to see if there was anything in it and then I fled, but after I got home, I saw what I had done. I found the notes. I did not dare to take them back and one day someone said Mr. Beers is coming this way, and I was so afraid I went and burned up all the papers but I am going to where I can earn money and I will try to earn enough to pay you all up if God spares my life. Pray for me so if there is any salvation for my poor soul, I may be saved and helped.

(Unsigned)

(As far as I can determine, they never heard from the woman again.)

More on the Fitches and the Military

by Kay Fitch

My husband, Stephen David Fitch, who passed away on December 5, 1989, and was David Fitch's grandson by Hurshel, was a naval officer during World War II.

After two years at Purdue University, where he was in ROTC, he was an apprentice seaman on a training cruise, aboard the U.S.S. Wyoming. Upon completion of the cruise, he was commissioned a midshipman and went to midshipman school at Abbott Hall in Chicago. He was in the first class of "90 day wonders," ensigns after just three months of concentrated study, graduated on December 12, 1940, and was assigned to the U.S.S. New Mexico. He served in the engineering departments on all his ships.

The New Mexico was a battleship whose purpose was to accompany convoys in the Atlantic. When Pearl Harbor was bombed, his ship was in port at Portland, Maine.

In January 1942 Steve was ordered to report to Balboa, Canal Zone, where he was assistant port director until February 1943, when he was assigned to the "new" Yorktown, an aircraft carrier which was being built at the Norfolk Naval Yard. He served on the Yorktown until July 1945, at which time he was transferred back to the Norfolk facility for the commissioning of the Midway.

In August, when the war in the Pacific ended, he applied for and received a discharge.

Steve's father, Hurshel Fitch, served in the Navy during World War I, as evidenced by his name and star on the Fitch's World War I "service flag."

The WW I Fitch Service Flag is among the our preserved heirlooms, but we're still looking for the U. S. flag that was sewed by Nathaniel's daughters during the Civil War and displayed at Reunions.

Newspaper Obituary of Sarah E. Fitch

Auburn Courier - September 2, 1908

AT ADVANCED AGE

Death at Huntertown of Mrs. Sarah E. Fitch

The Mother of Dr. D. N. Fitch, of This City

Mrs. Sarah E. Fitch, the mother of Dr. D. N. Fitch, of this City, died Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock at her home in Perry township, Allen County, near Huntertown, aged 90 years, of the infirmities due to her advanced age.

Mrs. Fitch was a lady of many noble traits of character and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. She was a Christian lady, a devoted wife and a loving mother.

The funeral will occur Friday forenoon at 9:30 from the residence, the services being at 10 o'clock at the Cemetery Church in Huntertown.

The following are the children: Nancy and John died in infancy; Perry the elder died eight years ago; Josiah M. Fitch of Huntertown; Mrs. J. F. Beers of Colorado; Charles and Allen Fitch, both of South St. Paul, Minnesota; Amos Fitch of DeKalb County, Indiana; Mrs. Francelia Fair of Alden, Kansas; Fipelia (sic) Gloyd of Fort Wayne; Harvey Fitch of Huntertown; Mrs. Sarah E. Stratton of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Ida S. Mason of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Emma Hartzell of New Haven and Dr. D. N. Fitch of Auburn.

The following sketch of her life has been furnished the Courier by relatives.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Fitch, widow of Nathaniel Fitch, and pioneer of Allen County, Ind., was born in Miami County, Bethel township, Ohio, May 29, 1819, the daughter of George and Sarah Stattler Delong. She came to DeKalb county, Ind., to the home of her sister, Mrs. Abram Fair, where she met Mr. Fitch, to whom she was married June 4, 1840. They located in Perry township, Allen county, Ind., which place became her permanent home the remainder of her life.

She was left a widow by the death of her husband January 1, 1877. A large number of immediate relatives survive her. She was the mother of fifteen children, twelve of whom are living, forty-six grandchild and twenty-eight great grandchildren.

Mrs. Fitch was christened in infancy in the German Reformed church. She united with the Methodist Episcopal church of which she was a consistent member up to the time of her death.

She was of a religious, charitable nature and her life was full of good deeds, for she gave with an open hand to the poor and needy.

The call of the sick and suffering was answered by her presence as often as both physician and nurse. Her influence and help has been far reaching through her long life and it can be said of her "She did what she could" and when in her 90th year the summons came, she was ready to go.

(NOTE: Can anyone tell me if Mathias was actually "Josiah Mathias" or was this a typo?)

A birthday card for Sarah E. Fitch on her 88th birthday.

GRANDMA FITCH DIES

The venerable mother of Allan Hartzell passed away at Huntertown, Wednesday morning. At the last Fitch reunion held two months ago it was seen that Grandma Fitch could not long survive. Past the age of 90, she had reached the time when any minute might bring the summons. She had always been strong but age overcomes strength. While sitting in bed receiving attention from members of the family, the aged head bent forward, a sigh escaped the lips and the spirit was gone.

- Cemetery from Page 1 -

The cemetery, which had been used from 1835 to 1896, was all but forgotten, overgrown with scrub, trees and vines.

Recently, Dennis R. Gloyd (Fitelia Fitch Gloyd's great grandson), who lives on Dafforn Road, took an interest in the old cemetery. "Throughout time the small cemetery had its battle with nature, neglect and vandals," said Dennis.

The cemetery, now called the Wesley Chapel, Jonston,Watterson Cemetery, sits at a bend in the road where north-south Taylor road makes a sharp turn to the east-west Aetna road. A neon green-painted wooden stake marked the spot recently.

The sorry sight of scattered, broken and illegible tombstones caused Dennis to work toward a goal of installing a plaque at the site that listed the names of all those known to be buried in the cemetery. He copied as many bits and pieces of the broken stones as he could, then tried to piece the names together jigsaw-puzzle fashion with the aid of census records and the Allen County Public Library Genealogy Department.

Finally, Dennis gathered 38 names and partial names on a list, bought the materials and had a plaque engraved and installed on the site.

Thanks to John and Elizabeth Fitch Pearson, Charles Fitch's granddaughter, we have some additional early photos of Charles Fitch's family, some of which are reproduced on this and the following pages.

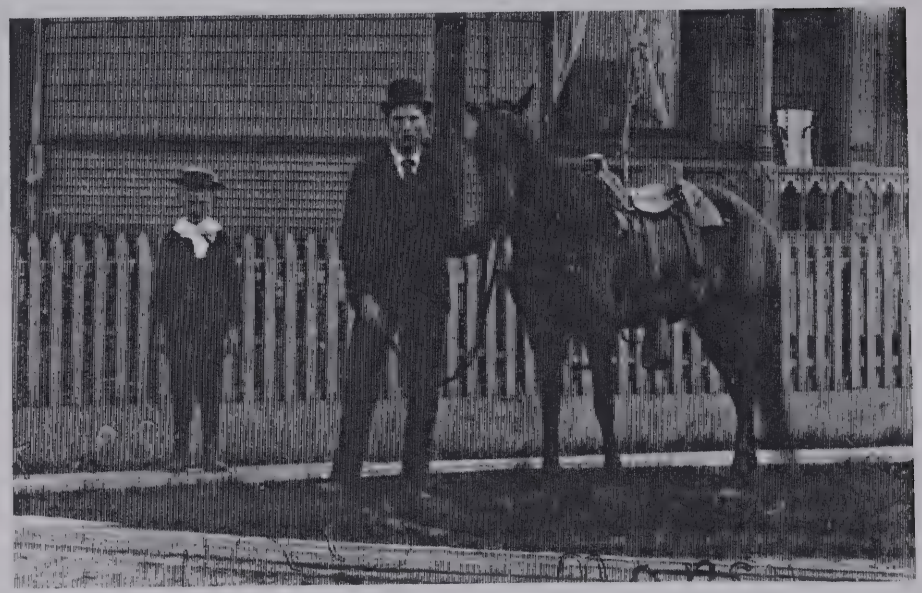
The fine quality of the originals of this era allows me to enlarge our copies until faces can be seen distinctly.



L-R: Giles and Harry Fitch, Charles Fitch's oldest and youngest sons, respectively, with Mopsy, the horse. Using our new negatives, larger prints can be made, so that our kin's faces can be even clearer. If you send me old family photos, I can enlarge portions so that you can enjoy seeing your ancestors close-up.

Perry Township Mills

The Fitch mills were described in the Fall 1993 Newsletter (page 28). Recently Bob and Evlyn Gloyd and Mary Louise Fitch sent me a copies of a poem about the Gloyd's mills, which were also known as the Vandolah's and Cedar Creek Mills. The Fitches, Gloyds and Vandolahs were all related through marriage: Perry Fitch married Sarah Gloyd, Mathias Fitch married Frances Vandolah and Fitelia Fitch married Jerome Gloyd.

The Gloyd sawmill was built by James Vandolah between 1835 and 1839, when it commenced operation. Successive family-related owners were George Gloyd, Jerome Gloyd (son of George and husband of Fitelia Fitch) and Edwin (brother of Jerome). The sawmill, which was equipped with an upright saw, was abandoned during the ownership of Jerome, but a grist mill with three four and a half foot French buhrstones continued in operation.

One buhrstone was used for processing flour, another for grinding cornmeal and the third was used for grinding chop feed for animals. The mill was powered by one large over-shot wheel and an immense turbine wheel which now lies buried in the silt and sand on the mill site near Big Cedar Creek (see map on page 7).

The Fitch saw mill was operated by Mathias Fitch until 1908, and the building was abandoned. Subsequently, part of the mill building fell down (see photo of Fitch sawmill below), and the remainder was dismantled.

Memories of Gloyd's Mill

by Estella Rowe, 1938

On a winding road at the foot of a hill
Are the tumbled down walls of Gloyd's old mill.

It's a scene of the past, our grandfathers made,
And a place where their children oft times played.

The miller was kind, so people have said,
And he ground their flour to make their bread.

The hills were steep and hard to climb,
But the trip was made many a time.

Across the creek still stands the bridge,
And the miller's home upon the ridge.

Those days are gone, but our memories still Take us back again to the grand old mill.

Horsedrawn wagons plowed through the mud,
Sometimes a wheel mired down to its hub.

'Twas common in winter to travel by sled
To get the flour to bake the bread.

Our late improvements and modern skill
Have banished the ways of the old water mill.

A Dream of the future that we might see- -
What a beautiful park these hills could be.

If you have family stories, photos, memorabilia, etc. and would like to share them with your near and distant Fitch cousins, write or call me. Also, please keep me informed of new addresses, births, marriages, divorces and deaths. Thanks.

APRIL 1980

Dear Fitch Cousins,

Our Family Assembly of 1979 is now history. Twenty-five cousins gathered at the River Lodge, Shoaff Park, Fort Wayne, Indiana on July 8, 1979. Those unable to attend sent greetings including laudatory comments on the Newsletter and generous contributions indicating a desire for continuation of the project as a means of perpetuating communication with family relationships.

After a delicious basket dinner and exchange of events in their families during the year, the members assembled to discuss matters of business and concerns.

1. Discussion and progress on updating of the Family History Book. Carolyn Kell Davis stated she had received some reports on marriages, births and deaths; however, the list is far from complete. A form is to be developed to send to distant families for this purpose; local families are to be contacted personally by telephone. The 4th and 5th generations are growing rapidly and we are already into the 6th. Carolyn mentioned the problem concerning the printing of the data; how it might best be accomplished.

2. Should we hold a reunion every year? The attendance has decreased each year; and secondly the assurance of rental of the Lodge presents a problem as reservations must be made immediately following January 1. Iolene Gloyd Pusey suggested another location, possibly Robinson Chapel Hall which probably could be reserved on shorter notice at no greater rental price than is currently in force. Iolene offered to investigate the matter.

3. We missed 3 of our "faithful" Senior members this year.
   Amos Fitch Family -- Margarette Fitch Wert who was unable to attend.
   Harvey Fitch F. -- Cecil Fitch McComb who sustained a broken hip and currently recovering from surgical fixation.
   David Fitch F. -- Helen Fitch Hawver who was unable to attend; however, sent greetings to all.

4. A suggestion had been made in a previous Newsletter of the possibility of preparing a current mailing list to be included in the next Newsletter. This has become a necessity as 15 letters were returned last year due to incorrect addresses. All but four have been reconciled. The list is current in so far as we know; however, we trust members of the family will assist us in providing correct information.

5. The Treasurer reported the following financial data:

Balance on hand 1978	$250.86
Interest on balance	9.17
Total	260.03
Expenses:
For rental of Lodge	$ 28.50
Newsletter- Printing and postage	52.41
Total	$ 80.91
On hand as of July 8	$179.12

$35.00 had been given to the Treasurer as donations and contributions towards the Newsletter.

6. Matter of Officers was brought up. Whether to keep a full slate of officers or not. Betty Fitch tendered her resignation as there was possibility of moving to Tennessee in the spring of 1980. Sister M. Alma Louise offered to continue editing the Newsletter and combining this with Secretarial duties as most of the items would be incorporated into the Newsletter. The other officers to be retained as contact persons.

Items of Interest during the year.

Sympathy is offered to the families of:

Perry Fitch Family -- Bessie M. Fitch, wife of Fred Fitch deceased July 15, 1979 at Colonial Crest Nursing Home, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Perry Fitch Family -- Nina Davis Fitch, Wife of Ivan Fitch, deceased fall of 1979, Marion, Indiana.

Mathias Fitch Family -- Merlin Fitch, deceased February 13, 1980, Sequim, Washington.

Illnesses:

Amos Fitch Family -- Margarette Fitch Wert sustained a fractured hip sometime during the year. Exact data is not known.

Marie Fitch Houser likewise had the misfortune to fracture a hip while visiting with her daughter in Ohio. Subsequent information and details are not known.

The Memorial Service for 1979 was led by Evelyn Gloyd for the following:

Dale Kistler - husband of Lottie Fitch Kistler (dec) on March 17, 1979.
Lucille Fitch Kiernan, October 29, 1979.
Alice Jane Fitch Getty - date not known.

Perry Fitch Family -- Christmas greeting from Sue Ann Fitch who writes from Denver, Colorado; "I am a Law Student at the University of Denver to graduate in December 1980." We say congratulations and good luck to you. Thank you for sending us your new address.

FINALLY - This Newsletter serves as the announcement of the 78th Annual Reunion to be held at the River Lodge, Shoaff Park, Fort Wayne, IN (usual place) on July 20, 1980. The suggested plans did not materialize. We will have the usual Basket Dinner asking each to bring their own table service. We again ask you to send greetings and news of your families during the year. We likewise expect your comments on the Newsletter as well as any incorrect addresses on the mailing list. If there are additional names to be added please inform us. Hopefully, we would like to get a Newsletter to all soon after the Reunion and then perhaps one soon after the first of each year if we receive enough news.

With best wishes and we do hope you can plan to be with us on July 20, 1980.

HISTORICAL NOTE

The American Genealogist was founded in July 1922 by Donald Lines Jacobus (1887–1970) as the New Haven Genealogical Magazine. The first eight volumes consist primarily of the editor's compendium, Families of Ancient New Haven. When that project was completed, the journal became, with the July 1932 issue (the first number of the ninth volume), The American Genealogist and New Haven Genealogical Magazine and was dedicated to the elevation of genealogical scholarship, through carefully documented analyses of genealogical problems and through short compiled genealogies. In 1937 the subtitle was dropped, and the journal became simply The American Genealogist, usually abbreviated as TAG.

After forty-three years as Editor and Publisher, Donald Lines Jacobus was succeeded in January 1966 by Dr. George E. McCracken (1904–1986) of Des Moines, Iowa, who continued the high standards set by TAG's founder.

With the April 1983 issue, Dr. McCracken was succeeded by Robert Moody Sherman (1914–1984) and Ruth Wilder Sherman (1929–1992) of Warwick, Rhode Island. Dr. David L. Greene of Demorest, Georgia, joined Mrs. Sherman in editing TAG, beginning with the April 1984 number, and Robert Charles Anderson of Derry, New Hampshire, became Coeditor with Dr. Greene in 1993. In 1999 Joseph C. Anderson II of Dallas, Texas, joined David Greene and Robert Anderson in editing TAG.

The present editors will continue TAG's independent status and strive for the high standards that have been the hallmark of the journal since its founding.

THE FIRST WIFE OF RALPH[1] KEELER OF HARTFORD AND NORWALK, CONNECTICUT

Probably an Unknown Sister of John Betts of Wethersfield

By Gale Ion Harris, FASG

Ralph[1] Keeler had been living in Hartford a dozen years or more when h moved soon after 1650 with the first settlers to Norwalk. He was at that tim about 37 years old and had several small children. Younger children were born i Norwalk in the 1650s, and then about 1663 he married, as her third husban Sarah, the widow of Edward Treadwell and Henry Whelpley.[1] As Charles M Selleck noted over a century ago,[2] and as Paul W. Prindle restated in this journa in 1959, no one has identified the mother of Keeler's children, the wife that h brought with him from Hartford to Norwalk.[3] The object of the present article i to introduce evidence and related circumstances from which we may deduce tha this woman probably was a previously unrecognized but still nameless daughte of widow Mary Betts, the early Hartford school teacher.

My interest in this old problem was first aroused by a chance discovery tha the medical records kept at Hartford by John Winthrop Jr. contain brief prescrip tion notes directly associating in a surprising way Ralph Keeler of Norwalk wit John Betts of Wethersfield. Winthrop's notes for 11 August 1659 show that h prepared only two prescriptions that day, both of which were entered under th heading "Wethersfield":

> Keeler Ralfe 12y (at J: Betts): breakes out every yeare in head & [lasts several?] week & i [pale?] but otherwise well. . . .
> Graves [blank] his wife (S: Smiths daughter) paine in head & giddiness. . . .[4]

A year and a half later, on 21 February 1660[/1], he entered the following:

> Keeler Elizabeth 7y: . . . paine in stomack . . . : hir father lives at Norwalk she lives at hir uncle Joh[n] Betts at Wethersfield.[5]

The two children, Ralph and Elizabeth, are mentioned subsequently in the will of their father Ralph Keeler at Norwalk,[6] but these prescription notes provide the only known evidence that John Betts of Wethersfield was related. The natural meaning of uncle in this context is that either Ralph Keeler had an unknown sister who married John Betts, or that Keeler's unknown first wife was a sister of John Betts, or that the men married sisters. The circumstances bearing on this relationship are reviewed in the following pages.

First, it is important to point out that the choice between these two alternatives is not a straightforward matter; the evidence is sufficient for a reasonably confident conclusion, but not a certainty. It is well known that John Betts had two wives, neither of whom was a sister of Ralph Keeler, but we must consider the possibility that he had an earlier wife at the time of the above prescription notes, who might have been Keeler's sister. Thus it is useful to start with a discussion of John Betts, then follow with a separate section about Ralph Keeler and his first wife.

JOHN BETTS AND HIS WIVES

Available accounts show that John[2] Betts, a son of John and Mary[1] (—) Betts baptized in Claydon, Oxfordshire, on 5 May 1627, married Abigail[2] Elderkin—whom he divorced in Connecticut on 14 October 1672—and that on 13 March 1672/3, he married Abigail[2] (Smith) Adams, the widow of John Adams of Hartford and a daughter of Richard[1] Smith of Wethersfield.[7] It is also generally accepted that the first of John Betts's two wives named Abigail was born at Dedham, Massachusetts, on 13 7th month [September] 1641[8] and baptized there six days later,[9] a daughter of John[1] Elderkin, who soon moved on to other places and became a carpenter and innkeeper in New London, Connecticut, in the 1650s before finally settling nearby in Norwich.[10]

[6] Jacobus, Old Fairfield, 1:355–56. These children's ages were unknown to Jacobus, who evidently was unaware of these prescription notes.

[7] The most comprehensive account is the chapter, "The Betts Family of Claydon and Hartford, Conn.," by Charlotte Goldthwaite in her Boardman Genealogy. 1525–1895 (Hartford, 1895), 138–49 (hereafter cited as Goldthwaite, Boardman Genealogy); a brief sketch is in Donald Lines Jacobus and Edgar Francis Waterman, Hale, House and Related Families, Mainly of the Connecticut River Valley (Hartford, 1952), 458–59 (hereafter cited as Jacobus and Waterman, Hale, House).

[10] Frances Manwaring Caulkins, History of New London, Connecticut, from the First Survey of the Coast in 1612, to 1860 (1860; repr. New London, 1895), 158–59, and Caulkins, History of Norwich, Connecticut (Hartford, 1866), 215–16. Caulkins errs, however, in writing that his daughter Abigail's birth "is recorded at Boston." In his "Elderkin Genealogy," William L. Weaver states that John Elderkin moved in 1663 from New London to Norwich, "where he built the first mill and church erected in that town," and was engaged also in building mills in Haddam and Killingworth, Conn., but "returned to Norwich, where he died, June 23, 1687, aged 75" (1865–66; repr. Lakeland, Fla., 1949, by Robert D. Elderkin as History of Ancient Windham . . . Elderkin, 3, 5). See also Nora E. Snow and Myrtle M. Jillson, The Snow–Estes Ancestry, 2 vols. (New York, 1939), 1:447–50, which states that Elderkin moved to Norwich "about 1661."

John Betts had married Elderkin's daughter at some unknown time before 23 December 1662—when she would have been little beyond her 21st birthday—for on that date, after acknowledging that he had made over half of his estate "to Abigall Betts" his wife "or Abigall Elderkin" before he "married her," John renounced the gift because of her alleged failings as his wife.[11] Next March a Quarter Court at Hartford pronounced punishment for the "high offence" of Abigail Betts for blasphemy and, because of the "irreconcilable distance of Spirit that is in John Betts and his wife," directed "that John Elderkin her father shall take her vnder his tuition and Gouerment vntil further order."[12] Nonetheless, John Betts and his wife got back together and had a daughter Abigail, born about March 1665/6,[13] before they finally divorced in 1672.

Unfortunately for present purposes, no record of the date of the marriage of John Betts and Abigail Elderkin has been preserved, nor have prior accounts eliminated the possibility that John, who was about 14 years older than Abigail, had a prior wife. It is apparent from records reviewed below that sometime after his mother's death in Hartford in 1647, John went to live with his older married sister Mary Boardman in Wethersfield. They also contain many items indicating that John was probably a married man throughout much of the 1650s. Moreover, Winthrop provides specific evidence that he had a "wife" by January 1657/8—when Abigail Elderkin would have been only 16—and that this person, whoever she was, was probably still his wife at least as late as February 1660/1. The central problem for the present case is whether this early "wife" was Abigail Elderkin or an unrecognized former wife. The essential facts may be summarized as follows.

Before 1658, no specific evidence is found that John Betts had a wife or children, but the following early references to him together give reason to believe that he was married no later than about 1655 (when he purchased the Latimer homestead in Wethersfield):[14]

[13] On 8 July 1667, Winthrop recorded a prescription for "Betts Abigall 1¼ y: daught of J Betts at Wethersfield," and another on 14 Feb. 1667/8 for "Betts Abigal 2 y: daught of Joh: at Wethersfield" (Winthrop Med. Recs., 744, 785). The existence of this daughter is mentioned in Goldthwaite, Boardman Genealogy, 147, but no source is given.

[14] A comparable case in Wethersfield is that of Benoni Blackleach who, according to Winthrop's notes, had married Dorcas Bowman by May 1665 and had purchased Samuel Smith's home lot in Wethersfield in Dec. 1663 (Gale Ion Harris, "John Blackleach, Merchant, of London and New

On 17 Oct. 1648, John Betts [then about 21] "acknowledge[d] himself Bound . . . in a Recogniscance of 10[l] to Carry good behauior in his Course of life," with Nicholas Olmsted of Hartford as his security. At the same court and time, "John Lord Tayloʳ acknowledge[d] himselfe bound in a Recogniscance of 20[l] . . . to carry good behauioʳ in his course of life," with "Thomas Lord his brother" as his security.[14]

On 7 Dec. 1648, John Betts and his security [Olmsted] and John Lord and his security [his brother Thomas] were freed of "theire Recogniscances" for good behavior.[16]

John Betts served on a jury at Hartford as early as Sept. 1652, and six times at varying intervals during the following decade.[17]

In Jan. 1653/4, the Wethersfield townsmen chose "John Beetts and John Hubert for Surveiers for this yeare Insuing."[18]

About 1654 or 1655, John Betts bought John Lattimer's homestead in Wethersfield, a house and three acres on Broad Street.[19]

In March 1655/6, John Betts was "Sworne" as constable for Wethersfield.[20]

In May 1657, John Betts and three others "are confirmed to bee Serjeants at Wethersfield."[21]

In March 1659/60, John Beets [sic] was listed among 89 property owners required by the town to maintain allotted portions of the meadow fences in Wethersfield.[22]

In Feb. 1661[/2], John Betts and four other men were chosen as Wethersfield "Townesmen for the year ensuing."[23]

The following extracts from Winthrop's medical records (which start in 1657) show that John was indeed married in January 1657/8, but the notes never include his wife's name or her age. It is significant to observe, however, that the first item seems to indicate that Winthrop had personal knowledge of her odd medical history from past years, yet he had moved only a few months before to Hartford from New London,[24] where he had known Abigail Elderkin's father since 1651.[25] The Keeler children entries are repeated here for context; all entries are identified in the notes as at Wethersfield:

8 Jan. 1657/8: "Betts John his wife . . . paines in body . . . every yeare she have fitt . . . she faints away like one dead for the tyme."[26]

8 April 1658: a prescription for "[B]etts John his wife vide 3 leaves before," and another for John Betts himself, who was "often troubled with cough but healthy otherwise feare it may bring consumption." The entry includes a note that on the following 10 May, John's "wife" was "very sore and I sent hir [a prescription] to take."[27]

25 May 1658: "Betts John his wife vide 2 leaves before." Annotations to this entry show that Winthrop sent her additional prescriptions on 8 and 21 June.[28]

5 Dec. 1658: "Bets John his wife 4 leaves before."[29]

7 March 1658/9: A prescription for "Betts John."[30]

22 March 1658/9: "Betts John his wife vide Dec 5."[31]

11 Aug. 1659: Keeler Ralfe 12y (at J: Betts): breakes out every yeare in head & [lasts several?] week & is [pale?] but otherwise well. . . .[32]

17 April 1660: "Betts John his wife [a prescription] to take gargled in water everyday a week or 10 daies."[33]

21 Feb. 1660[/1]: "Keeler Elizabeth 7y: . . . paine in stomack . . . : hir father lives at Norwalk she lives at hir uncle Joh[n] Betts at Wethersfield."[34]

It may be inferred from the full set of items above that John Betts had a wife, name and age not recorded, from the mid-1650s through April 1660, and probably still in February 1660/1 as he then had a seven-year-old girl in his home. Could this wife have been Abigail Elderkin, to whom he had been married a sufficient time in December 1662 to renounce his estate gift to her because of her failings as his wife?

A conclusion that John's wife in the late 1650s was Abigail Elderkin must rest primarily on an argument that there was not enough time in the blank period between February 1660/1 and December 1662 for one wife to die, then for John to marry Abigail—presumably in New London or Norwich where her father was living—and then for him to become so unhappy with her behavior that he would [24] Winthrop moved from New London to New Haven for a few months, and then to Hartford "late in the autumn of 1657" (Robert C. Black III, The Younger John Winthrop [New York, 1966], 178–80 [hereafter cited as Black, Younger John Winthrop]).

formally renounce the gift. This argument is strengthened by a realization that the "blank" period in Winthrop's notes after early 1661 can have nothing to do with the status of John Betts or his wife: Winthrop left early that July for a two-year stay in England and there are no entries in his medical journal in the period from June 1661 through June 1663.[35]

On the other hand, a conclusion that John's wife in the late 1650s was not Abigail Elderkin must rest on what at first seems a persuasive argument that at about age 14 she was too young to become his wife anytime near 1655. There is good reason to believe that this argument, while given much force generally in New England, may be weakened in this case by circumstances well outside the norm. Other facets of Abigail's life suggest that she may have married very young and, moreover, exhibited a rebellious, immature personality throughout the known period of her marriage to John Betts.

As seen above, for example, in March 1663, after John and Abigail's marital troubles became a matter for the court, they turned her over to her father for "his tuition and Gouernment." John took her back for a time, but Abigail remained incorrigible. In March 1669/70, "Mary the wife of John Coultman & Abigail the wife of John Betts" were convicted in Wethersfield "for Notorious lacivious practices" including, among other acts of a similar character, "pulling down" the "breeches & drawers" of various young men about town, for which they were "seveerly punished by whiping on the naked body."[36] I have recently shown that John Coltman's wife, Abigail's accomplice in these activities, was probably William Taylor's daughter Mary, who would not have been over age 15, probably younger, when she married Coltman in 1667.[37]

On balance, it appears to be unlikely that John Betts had a wife other than Abigail Elderkin in the period 1659–61 when, as their "uncle," he was caring for the children of Ralph Keeler in his home at Wethersfield. Thus it remains for us to examine whether it is reasonable to conclude in the alternative that Betts had a sister who could be Keeler's unknown first wife and the mother of these children.

RALPH KEELER AND HIS FIRST WIFE

"Raph Keiler" and "widdow Betts" (mother of John Betts of Wethersfield) were among the forty-one Hartford inhabitants who had been granted lots "at The Townes Courtesie" by January 1639/40.[38] Widow Mary Betts apparently was living at that time near the north bank of the Little River on a portion of a two-acre home lot that Seth Grant had sold to her.[39] Keeler was living not far away on the south side, with Allen's mill somewhere between them.[40] The associations were conspicuously close. For example, a decade later Ralph Keeler and Richard Webb—who by that time had married Seth Grant's widow—were among those who entered into an agreement "for the settlinge and plantinge of Norwalke."[41]

The standard account of Mary Betts and her family shows that her husband, John Betts of Claydon, Oxfordshire, probably died in England or during the voyage to America, and that she supported her family in Hartford by keeping a school for young children in her house.[42] She died shortly before 19 July 1647, according to a comment in a letter of that date by the Reverend Samuel Stone: "Goody Bets the schooldame is dead, with some others."[43] There is no probate for her, nor has a list of her children been found in any other record. From scattered sources, however, three children were identified long ago, all of whom settled in Wethersfield:[44]

i MARY BETTS, b. ca. 1623, d. Wethersfield, Aug. 1684, aged 61; m. ca. 1641, SAMUEL[1] BOARDMAN/BOREMAN.[45]

ii MARTHA BETTS, b. ca. 1625, d. Wethersfield, 13 April 1701, age 75 "as some think"; m. there, 16 Jan. 1655[/6], NATHANIEL[2] GRAVES, son of Thomas[1] Graves of Hartford and brother of John Graves, husband of Lt. Samuel Smith's daughter Mary.[46]

[44] The son John is known from Hartford land records. In 1678 he sold a 12-acre parcel in (present) East Hartford "which was his mothers," the same that had been set out in 1666 on the right of "wid: Betts" (Original Distribution, Conn. Hist. Soc. Colls., 14:493, 534). As discussed in Goldthwaite, Boardman Genealogy, 138–39, the two daughters are known from Wethersfield Deeds, 2:73, 75, by which John Betts "bequeathed" a half of "my movables about my house" in Jan. 1662[/3] to "my kinsfolke the children of my Brother[-in-law] Borman" and the other half "unto my brother[-in-law] Nathaniell Graves." The dates of these gifts fall during the worst of John's troubles with the court in Hartford (Particular Court Recs., Conn. Hist. Soc. Colls., 22: 267–68) and shortly after he revoked in Dec. 1662 his gift of half of his personal estate to his wife Abigail because of her failings as his wife. It is obvious that John wanted to put all of his personal property in the hands of his sisters living nearby in Wethersfield and, for the present discussion, also easy to see that he would have no practical reason or need to put any of it in the hands of in-laws of a deceased sister in distant Norwalk.

iii JOHN BETTS, bp. Claydon, Oxfordshire, 5 May 1627, d. Huntington, Long Island, N.Y., between 18 June 1688 and 6 May 1690;[47] m. (1) say 1655 (as discussed above), ABIGAIL[2] ELDERKIN, daughter of John[1] Elderkin of Salem, Mass., and Norwich, Conn., m. (2) probably Wethersfield, 13 March 1672/3, ABIGAIL[2] (SMITH) ADAMS,[48] widow of John Adams of Hartford and a daughter of Richard[1] Smith of Wethersfield

There is nothing of substance in the available evidence to set against the existence of a third, undiscovered daughter. The chronology, for example, is just right for an older daughter born say 1621, who would be of suitable age in the mid-1640s to marry Ralph Keeler. Although birth dates or ages for some of Keeler's children are not known, they probably were all born in a period beginning in the mid-1640s and ending in the late 1650s (summary below).

It is not only possible that there was another Betts daughter, it is very probable, as Winthrop indirectly gave us reason to connect her with John Betts (rather than his wife), and with Ralph Keeler. Occasionally, one finds in his journal a series of sequential prescription entries for an extended family group—as if they had sent someone to Hartford to pick up a batch of remedies for all who were ailing.[49] Winthrop's only prescription entries for 11 August 1659 (see introductory page of this article) were for John Betts's young Keeler nephew from Norwalk, who was residing in his home, and for the wife of his sister Martha's brother-in-law John Graves. The extended family group in this case consisted of John Betts's own relatives, not those of his wife.

To summarize, Winthrop's use of "uncle" to describe the relationship about 1660 of John Betts of Wethersfield to the children of Ralph Keeler of Norwalk reasonably can be interpreted three ways, either that Betts's wife at that time was an unknown sister of Ralph Keeler, or that Betts had a previously unrecognized sister who had become Keeler's unknown first wife, or that Keeler and Betts married sisters. The evidence and detailed circumstances reviewed above show independently that the second possibility is very probable. The conclusion to be drawn with reasonable confidence therefore is that Ralph Keeler's first wife was a sister of John Betts.

We are not told why the two Keeler children from Norwalk were living with their Betts uncle at Wethersfield in 1659 and 1661. The circumstances show, however, that their mother's unrecorded death probably had occurred at Norwalk sometime before August 1659 and that their father had placed them, presumably until he remarried about 1663, with her relatives in Wethersfield.[50]

KEELER FAMILY SUMMARY

RALPH[1] KEELER was born probably in England about 1613 and died at Norwalk, Connecticut, after 20 August 1672, the date of his will (giving his age, 59 years), and before an inventory of his estate was begun the next month.[51] As discussed above, he probably married first at Hartford in the mid-1640s, —[2] BETTS, born say 1621, a previously unrecognized daughter of John and Mary[1] (—) Betts of Claydon, Oxfordshire, and whose mother became the widow Mary Betts, the early "schooldame" at Hartford. The chronology indicates that this daughter probably was older than her known sisters, Mary and Martha Betts, born about 1623 and 1625, respectively. She died probably in Norwalk before 11 August 1659, by which time at least one of her children had been placed with her brother John Betts in Wethersfield.[52] Ralph Keeler married secondly, about 1663, as her third husband, SARAH (HOWES) (TREADWELL) WHELPLEY, widow of Edward[1] Treadwell of Hempstead, Long Island, and of Henry Whelpley of Fairfield, Connecticut.[53] Sarah married, as her fourth husband, Thomas Skidmore of Fairfield, and died about November 1684.[54]

[47] Dates of a deed by John and Abigail Betts of Huntington and a deed to the widow Betts for the use of her children (Charles R. Street, ed., Huntington Town Records, Including Babylon, Long Island, N.Y., 3 vols. [Huntington, 1887–89], 1:529–31, 2:75; Jacobus and Waterman, Hale, House, 459). On 4 March 1696/7, John Betts Jr. exhibited in court at Hartford an inventory of the estate in lands in Connecticut of John Betts, "formerly of Wethersfield, late of Huntington, Long Island, now deceased" (Charles William Manwaring, A Digest of the Early Connecticut Probate Records: Hartford District, 3 vols. [Hartford, 1904–6], 1:537).

[48] Manwaring, Early Connecticut Probate Records, 1:183. The marriage, including the date but not the place, is from a court record abstracted by Manwaring. It mentions Wethersfield women who were present.

[49] Two "Wethersfield" examples of this occurred in April 1658 and March 1658/9, both involving sequential entries for various children of Henry Palmer and William Palmer of Wethersfield, presumably brothers but whose actual relationship is not a matter of record (Winthrop Med. Recs., 324, 342). For details, see Gale Ion Harris, "Henry[1] and Katherine Palmer of Wethersfield, Connecticut, and Newport, Rhode Island," The Genealogist 17(2003):177–78, where it is noted that the entry arrangements "are ones typically found in [Winthrop's] records for members of a single family."

[50] The conclusion of this article that the wife of Ralph Keeler of Norwalk was a Betts perhaps adds a new dimension to an old conjecture that John Betts, father of the Hartford–Wethersfield family, and Thomas[1] Betts, early settler of Guilford and Norwalk, were brothers (Goldthwaite, Boardman Genealogy, 139–41). John Insley Coddington, however, showed later that Thomas Betts was from West Peckham, co. Kent, and nowhere near the Oxfordshire home of the Hartford family ("Betts Family," NEHGR 92[1938]:296–301).

[51] Jacobus, Old Fairfield, 1:355–56. The inventory was "taken in September & October last 1672" and presented by "the widow Keeler" on 5 Nov. 1672 (Fairfield Probate District, no. 3562, 1672, Family History Library [FHL] film #1,018,760). The will apparently was missing when the file was filmed.

children of Ralph[1] and – (Betts) Keeler:[55]

i JOHN[2] KEELER, b. say 1645, d. Norwalk, between 27 Feb. 1718/9 and 3 May 1720 (dates of will and its proof); m. Norwalk, 18 June 1679, MEHITABEL[3] ROCKWELL,[56] daughter of John[2] Rockwell (John[1]?) of Stamford, Conn., and Rye, N.Y., probably with his apparent 1st wife, Mehitabel (—).[57]

ii RALPH KEELER, b. ca. 1647 (age 12 y, 11 Aug. 1659),[58] d. Norwalk, before 2 March 1720/1 (date of inventory);[59] m. GRACE[2] LINDALL, b. New Haven, 31 March 1656, living 1716 (husband's will), daughter of Henry[1] Lindall.[60]

iii Daughter, b. say 1649; m. by 1672, as his 1st wife, THOMAS[2] MOREHOUSE, son of Thomas[1] and Isabel (—) Morehouse of Wethersfield, Stamford, and Fairfield, Conn.[61]

iv REBECCA KEELER, bp. Hartford, 9 Feb. 1650[/1],[62] m. (1) Fairfield, 16 Nov. 1671, BENJAMIN[2] TURNEY, b. ca. 1645, d. ca. 1694, son of Benjamin[1] and Mary (Odell) Turney of Concord, Mass., and Fairfield;[63] m. (2) Wallingford, Conn., 21 Sept. 1699, as his 4th wife, Dr. JOHN[2] HULL (Richard[1]) of New Haven, Stratford, Derby, and Wallingford.[64]

v ELIZABETH KEELER, b. ca. 1654 (age 7 y, 21 Feb. 1660[/1]);[65] m. (1) Norwalk, 17 July 1673, JAMES[2] PICKETT,[66] bp. Salem, Mass., 19 Nov. 1648, d. Danbury, Conn., in 1701/2, son of John[1] and Margaret (—) Pickett of Salem, Mass., and Stratford, Conn.; m. (2) by Oct. 1711 — HAYES.[67] Jacobus notes that the marriage record of James[2] Pickett "says Rebecca instead of Elizabeth; but Pickett's wife is called Elizabeth in later records, while . . . Rebecca's marriage to Turney is recorded at Fairfield, and she appears as Rebecca in later records."[68]

vi SAMUEL KEELER, b. ca. 1655, d. Ridgefield, Conn., 19 May 1713, age 58; m. Norwalk, 10 March 1681/2, SARAH ST. JOHN/SENSION,[69] b. Norwalk, 18 Jan. 1659[/60?],[70] d. Ridgefield, 15 April 1714, daughter of Mark[2] St. John/Sension (Matthias[1]) and Sarah (Stanley).[71]

vii JONAH KEELER, b. say 1657, d. before 11 March 1673/4, when his share of his father's estate was divided among his three brothers on condition they pay £4 each to Jonah's four sisters [unnamed].[72] viii Daughter, living March 1673/4 (see brother Jonah).

[56] Edwin Hall, comp., The Ancient Historical Records of Norwalk, Conn. . . . (Norwalk, 1847), 189 (hereafter cited as Hall, Ancient Records of Norwalk): "John Keeiler, the sonne of Ralph Keeiler, formerly of Norwake, deceased, tooke to wiffe Hittabel Rockewell, the daughter of John Rockewell, formerly of Stamford, and was married the 18th of June 1679."

[57] Jacobus, Old Fairfield, 1:356, 152; Selleck, Norwalk, 121; John Bradley Arthaud has recently shown that John[2] Rockwell probably had a 1st wife named Mehitabel and that Mehitabel[3] (Rockwell) Keeler was apparently a daughter of that marriage ("Enigmas #13: Was John Rockwell of Stamford, Connecticut, Married Twice?" TAG 77[2002]:104–9).

[59] Fairfield Probate District, no. 3563 [FHL film #1,018,760]. The inventory was taken by John Betts Sr. and Mathew Gregory, the former presumably the John Betts b. Guilford, Conn., 20 June 1650, son of Thomas Betts of Guilford, Milford, and Norwalk, and having no known relationship to Ralph's mother (Coddington, "Betts Family," NEHGR 92[1938]:300).

DEATH AND THE DISHES

A small sect called the Osgoodites in the area around Warner, N.H., died out by the mid-nineteenth century. The following comes from an account of one of its last meetings, in 1849:

One of their number had recently died, almost instantaneously, and, as was not unnatural, most of their prayers and exhortations bore reference to the sad event. One of the prayers uttered contained the following sentence, so peculiar that it has not been forgotten by the listener to this late day [ca. 1890]: "Thou knowest, O Lord, Thou didst call for her while she stood at the table washing up the dishes."[1]

Death Notice of MRS. ELIZABETH KEELER, wife of ASA KEELER, in the 65th year of her age, in Northmoreland Township, on Monday the 1st. The deceased came into said township when almost a winderness, being one of the first settlers. Having resided in said place for upwards of 40 years, she participated in the various difficulties which settlers in an early day had to undergo. She was like most women of her day, endowed with a strong constitution and vigorous intellect, but old age and that insidious and deceptive disease, Dropsy, at last removed her from the sphere of her usefulness and enforced payment of the great debt of nature that we must all pay sooner or later (16, Oct. 1849)

JOHN KEELER, aged 86 years, a soldier of the Revolution, from Orange County, New York, died in Davidson, Sullivan Co., 22 Nov. 1849. (12 March 1850)

The parents of ELIZABETH JOHNSON, the wife of SEYMOUR FITCH, are Charles Johnson and Sarah Dixon. Listed in 1850 census are a Charles Johnson 64, Sarah 58, Charles 21, and Charlotte 17. Querie on if these are the right parents. Census is of Abingdon Township, Luzerne County, PA.

PRINCE ALDEN, information wanted. Say he died in 1804 Meshoppen, PA. and his wife was MARY FITCH. Were in the Wyoming Valley at the time of the Revolutionary War.

PATTY, POLLY OR MARY KEELER (1799-1867) (one and the same) daughter of Paul Keeler and Sarah Burt Cornwall, married ANDREW MONTAYNE, JR. (1795-1880). She, Patty, Polly, or Mary would be a younger sister of Sarah Keeler who married Nathaniel Fitch.

ELIPHLET STEPHENS, SR. (died August 31, 1814, at 83 years. Birth date being c. 1731) Wife, Elsie Holloway (died April 5, 1820, at 87 years. Birth date c. 1733) They were married in 1751 and buried in Nicholson, PA. Check this for coming from Norwalk, CT.

Death of MRS. LUCY KEELER, in Towanda, 25th of July, 1845, in her 80th year. (13 Aug. 1845)

MRS. ELIZABETH JENKINS, aged 91 years, died in Tunkhannock Township, on Monday the 8th of September 1845, at the residence of her son, Jabez Jenkins. She was of the oldest inhabitants of this section of country -- was in the Jenkins' Fort in Exeter at the time of the battle with the Tories and Indians. She was originally from Groton, CT. (17 Sept. 1845)

LITCHFIELD COUNTY., Look up the David Mitchell family and the William Patterson (wife Anna) family. Sarah Patterson married David Mitchell and they had a daughter Sarah Mitchell who married David Osterhout. The Pattersons were supposedly from Litchfield County. Check to see if they are anywhere close to John Fitch, son of James Fitch and Abiel Metcalfe. Not much connection, but the Mitchells came to Pittston Township, Luzerne Co., PA, about 1790 from the Litchfield area. The Osterhouts were just a few miles up the river from John Fitch.

Thomas Osterhout was married to MARY JENKINS (born July 21, 1818 and died Oct. 22, 1857) She was the daughter of PERMELIA BARNUM and JABEZ JENKINS. Making her a sister of Elijah Jenkins who married Nancy Fitch, sister to our Indiana Nathaniel.

AMOS T. DEWITT, of Eaton Township married to Miss Elizabeth C. KEELER of Northmoreland Township, on the 23rd of October, by Peter Winter, Esq. 1850

Look up DANIEL HURLBUTT, CAPT., of Norwalk, CT. His daughter Elizabeth married Noah Hickok and lived in Lemon Township, Wyoming County. She died July 26, 1850, in the 83rd year of her life. Check to see if he moved or if some of his family moved from Norwalk to PA. May be a connection to John Fitch.

Mr. Mathew Weaver, died on Saturday last when a personal encounter took place between him and Mr. Asa Keeler. The argument ended with Mr. Keeler inflicting a blow with a chair upon the back of Mr. Weaver's neck, which caused almost instant death. Inquest held on Sunday and Mr. Keeler was arrested and held to bail in sum of $10,000 for his appearance at next court. Article written Sept. 3, 1850.

Asa Keeler, son of Paul Keeler, Jr., and Sarah Burt Cornwall was born in 1780 and died in 1867. He had a son by the name of Asa, Jr. born probably c. 1810. One statement about him stated that he had not been heard from in 30 years and that was in 1866. If that is so he was probably not around in 1850 when this happened. I believe that statement was made concerning the will of his father, Asa. The other Asa Keeler was the son of Heister Keeler, son of Asa. As his mother was not born until 1837 it would not have been possible for this Asa to be old enough to have murdered this man. So wonder if Asa Keeler, Sr. who would have been 70 years old was the one who killed this man?? Perhaps he had a hot temper or maybe was a little senile at the age of 70. If he died in 1870 he lived another 17 years.

1 female 5 to 10	born 1820-1825
1 female 20 to 30	born 1800-1810

Nancy Fitch, daughter of Nathaniel Fitch I and Sarah Keeler, married Elijah Jenkins and had a daughter named Frances. She married Daniel J. Bardwell. They had 8 children. Since Nancy was not born until 1823 this would have to be a father or more likely a grandfather to the Daniel J. who married Frances Jenkins.

DAVID C. AUSTIN, Orphan's Court Records
28 May 1855 Petition of son L.M. Austin, mentions 11 children: Amanda wife of Major C. Case; L.M.; Mahetable, wife of George Brungess; DAVID B., Maria; Margaret; Sarah Jane; Almira; Louisa; Elizabeth (last 5 in their minority. Widow: Margaret.

6 May, 1851 Minors under 14: Louisa, Mary, Elizabeth have guardian, Jacob Rhoad. Minors over 14: Maria Jane, Margaret, Julia, Elmira have guardian, Jacob Rhoad.

4 Feb. 1852 Jane, Margaret, Julia Ann, Elmira, Louisa, Elizabeth, minor heirs have David L. Hatfield appaointed guardian.

This is probably the family of David B.(Brooks) Austin who married Margery C. Fitch, the daughter of Morgan and Mary Ann Fitch. Margery may be called Caroline in some places. This would be the death of his father and the listing of his mother and rest of the family. Looks like he may have been the only boy. The rest seem to be all girls.

STERNE KEELER, son of Asa and Elizabeth (Neuman) Keeler, and grandson of of Paul Keeler, Jr., married a Lydia, who may have been Lydia Corby, the daughter of Asa Corby and Sally. Her siblings could have been Calvin Corby, Ellen Corby, Isreal Corby, Samuel Corby, and Flora Corby. Poss: Koon Corby, Charlotte Corby who married Abraham Keithline. In inquiries.

There was a MARY SCOTT, who married Barnabas Cary in Wyoming County, c. 1755. They lived in Pittston Township in the early 1800s. Recorded because of the possible Scott connection to John Fitch as second wife. Means there were some Scotts living in this part of the country very early.

An inquiry says that Betsey married DAVID DAILEY, or DAILY, and lived in Falls Township in the early 1800's. Gideon Fitch had an Elizabeth who married a Dailey. Elizabeth was probably the daughter of Gideon and Hannah who died in 1814.

MARY (SICKLER) TOWNSEND married Consider Townsend. Mary born c. 1801. Lived with son Benjamin in 1870 census, Mill City, Falls Twp. Daughter of Jacob Sickler and Hannah Chatfield??? Check. Yes according to ASH

MARIAH / MARIA – 1st child

Who was EMANUEL DAILEY/ DAILY who married MARY FITCH c. 1828??? They resided in Falls Township and had children: Matilda who married a Bardwell, Mary M. who married an Overfield, Andrew Jackson, and Ada who married a Hess.

Who is JOHN SPENCER, born c. 1790 in Connecticut, came to Lovelton in Wyoming County, PA. His son, Samuel Spencer born C. 1829 married Phebe _____, and they had children Mary Spencer, Samuel D. Spencer, John Spencer, Charles Wesley Spencer, William Spencer, Rachael Spencer, and Martha who married Jonathan Douglas, James Spencer, Philip Spencer, Cora Spencer, and Sarah Spencer.

PATRICK MADDEN, born c. 1829 and was 29 in 1858, was naturalized in 10 March 1858 in NY with another date of 15 Feb. 1858 #385. This was copied because of the name MADDEN. It shows that Patrick came from Ireland. The Shaffer genealogy has an Elizabeth Madden who possibly married into the Shaffer family as a "Welsh" lady. Perhaps that date of March 10, 1853 NY means that he came over from Ireland and landed in NY in 1853. The Shaffer/Madden connection was long before that.

children of dec'd daughter, Mary Ann, wife of John DeCalb
Letters 6 June 1889 Inv. & App. 15, June 1889
Final Acc. 3 May 1890

When I first started to copy this I thought this was the MARY ANN WILLIAMS who had married Morgan Fitch. Morgan was born in 1809, and died in 1888 so unless Mary Ann lived longer than he did and remarried, it was not. The children are listed as though their name was DeCalb. Nothing is said about Fitch. Do not have a date for the death of Mary Ann, wife of Morgan at this time.

CONRAD MENGER 1 male 50 to 60 born 1780-1790

Jane, daughter of Allen Fitch and Lydia Beemer married a Conrad Menger, Minger, Munger. This may be the next generation. Allen was born in 1826 and died in 1855. Would still be at home in 1840. This might be a single uncle or if Conrad's father he could be older and out on his own or living with relatives if the mother had died. Or could be his grandfather.

Keeler's Ferry: "Nelson Walker, who timbered the Keeler property at Keelersburg a few miles above West Falls, operated a freight ferry for about 5 years until 1900 from there to the McKune property on the east side of the river. The initial ferry boat built by Solomon White of pine logs cost $35. Members of the Keeler family and others contributed the funds for its construction. Apparently tho it was called "Keeler's Ferry" the Keeler family did not do the operation themselves, but owned part of it.

John died about 6 years ago. Petition dated 19 Aug. 1867 of widow Mary; Samuel; Ann (Armstrong) Harding, James, MARGARET, Matildia, and Charles (last 3 minors) by their guardian, Mary Armstrong. Petition for partition of real estate.

Giles Fitch, II, married a MAGGIE ARMSTRONG. Giles would have been born perhaps in the 30's and this MARGARET might be just too young to marry Giles, but thought would record it just in case. She would be below 21 in the year 1867 making her birthday after 1847.

STEPHEN S. JENKINS, 26 of Meshoppen, merchant, son of Samuel H. Jenkins and Nancy married to Clara Winnie, 26 of Nicholson, dress-maker, daughter of Peter A. Winnie, married on June 2, 1888 at Nicholson by Henry H. Wilbur. The date on this may be 1887 as it is also listed with some marriages of 1887.

Would make the birth dates of Stephen and Clara 1860-1862.

CORY L. KRESKY, 23, of Tunkhannock, son of Jacob Kresky, to ELLA H. DICKINSON, 20, of Tunkhannock, daughter of Sidney W. Dickinson and Sarah, married on Oct. 14, 1885 at Tunkhannock by Gill Colville.

Would make the birth dates of Cory, 1862, and Ella, 1865.

O.S. FITCH VS MARY FITCH
Petition 30 Nov. 1891 Decree 11 April 1892
They were married 6 Oct. 1888 by G.L. Burson. After the marriage they lived at Brinktown. He had 2 boys and 1 girl by a previous marriage. Mary left Nov. 1889. Testimony was given by Mrs. Harriet Brink, sister of O.S.Fitch.

This was no doubt Orlando Seymour Fitch, son of Seymour and Elizabeth Johnson. By the accounts of CWFitch from Florida, Orlando was married 3 times. His first wife was Frances Brink. He is recorded as being just 5 foot tall! His second wife was his housekeeper and she took off with all of his possessions. CWF names her as Lib Hunter. Perhaps she is the "Mary" above as it looks like she left home. Then there was a third wife, Lizzie Whitbeck Chamberlain. The sister mentioned above would be Harriet E. Fitch who married J. S. Brink as his third wife. Dates of birth and death for Orlando Seymour (1841-1917) and Harriet Fitch (1835-1905)

In a news item 1 April 1869 "NEWMAN MILLER has bought of Daniel Wright a fine suburban property near the Avery and Miller Foundry where he intends shortly to build and locate for life."

On 10 Jan. 1878, he sold this property to Frances Dana Miller (Mrs. Peter). Newman lived there until 12 July 1893. I never read or heard any explanations of the change of plans.

Listed one place as the date of his death, July 12, 1893. Have to recheck that. Nancy Fitch, his 2nd wife died in 1875.

Not positively I.D.

Ziba appears to be a son of Augusta Smith who has 2 brothers by the name of Smith

Was she unmarried & had Ziba?
Or Married another Smith? It calls her a widow.

Hi, and a Happy Holiday Season to You, and your's !!!

The above picture is THE Santa Claus, resting on the TV shelf above the kitchen table, wearing Pat Brown's favorite cap complete with appropriate Army Air Force patch from when she first entered the Women's Army Air Corps, in 1953.

She bought the Santa before Christmas, last year. Her last Christmas, it turned out. May she know that all is OK, and that her kindness, consideration, humanness, and samaritianianism shall be remembered for all time.

Yes, this year coming to a close has been interesting, to say the very least. Did start out with a VERY quiet New Year'', as is/was our practice. Most of you already know that I found Pat lying on the floor of her bedroom, 21st January this year. Graveside funeral followed on the 24th. Easy in – Easy out was her wish. From the last day I saw Pat, Gypsy and I have resided in her home, at 2414 – 236th. Street, Torrance, Calif., 90501. Finally had the telephone put in my name, retaining the phone number of over 40 years. It is (310) 326-4267.

Every other week, or so, I go up to my Mobile to check things out, move a box or two, and dash back here. Have had two valid offers from individuals wishing to purchase my mobile. The park ownership has refused BOTH. Have retained an attorney to see if can resolve whatever issue held by the park owner.

It is impossible for me to express my grateful appreciation for all of the support given me by true friends, and family. Whatever was decided, thinking it was time for me to learn to stand on my own feet, by taking Pat from me, still remains a mystery. I miss her terribly. Do visit her about once a month, to assure her that I shall take good care of her home, and Gypsy. Gypsy, a rescued Jack Russell Terrier, was given me by Pat. She knew what she was doing, and now I understand.

Had planned to take a cross-country RV trip, in April. It was placed ON HOLD, until August. Decided to attend the National Convention of the Daughter's of Union Veterans of the Civil War, in Omaha. After having gotten across the Rockies, sometimes at 20 mph, we made it (Gypsy and I) and after the Convention had grand visits with family and friends, collecting more genealogically significant family court records and documents along the way.

Pat had bought my sedan from me, when I bought the RV. I now have it back, along with the old 1970 ¾ ton Ford pickup, did have her car 'cept she obviously loved it sooo much that she came back and took it with her, as it quit running when I was taking it up to be serviced. Yes, I still have the RV. Know that I either have to decide to use it, or place it FOR SALE for someone who could use it, to do so. Then, there is the classic car in the garage. It IS on the list to be restored. Restored, after having at least one of Gypsy's cataracts removed (hopefully BOTH) as she is blind in both eyes. IF the roof continues to evade repair, it may have to be added to the TO DO list, before the car restoration. So far my good roofing men have been stymied as to the location of the culprit leaky area. Thought, at first, that the new patio roof was leaking by where it connected to the house/garage. That has been well repaired, and it still leaks. Now can see that it is leaking just enough to run down the rafter to the south of the chimney, dripping into a coffee can on a bench in the patio, tho' NO apparent areas in need of repair are visible. When we have a good bit of rain, it also soaks the ceiling in the attic. So far it has avoided the living room ceiling. May it continue to do so.... ..

Have tried to finish up ALL the projects that Pat had started in her home. She was much more multi-tasked than am I. She did leave a good trail. All I had to do is look to see which tools were lying where, and that DID lead me to the next project. May she be pleased with the final results. She wanted the old kitchen wallpaper removed, and the walls painted white. I compromised by covering the old irreplaceable wallpaper with Alaskan Oak paneling, as you can kind of see behind the above Santa. Took the pix with my handheld personal organizer, with only natural light seeping in the kitchen window. Transferred into the computer, kind of blotchy. You will get the idea... ... ...

Next phase will be to empty out the Mobile, and get my stuff down here. First step will be to move the piano to here, and into the back bedroom, which is awaiting its arrival. It is kind'a set up as a guest/computer/music room. Still need to go thru closets here, to see what could be done with the contents. There is a detached building at the back of the lot, we call the DEN of INIQUITY. I have lived out there, in-between one venture or another. It is now one BIG storage room. Mostly STUFF that was in here at one time, OR stuff I brought down as had no more room. Then, there is the attic. Perfect hideaway for Pack Rats to store/hide that for which they no longer have use, and plan to keep for ALL time.

Speaking of PLANS, I plan some RV side trips, and another trip next August, or thereabouts. For those who live along projected route, ready OR not, see you then.... ..

Love and Hugs, and may God continue to bless us ALL.... ....

karenk.

FITCH RELATED ITEMS FROM THE LATEST "LEST WE FORGET"

DeWitt C. BRINK, of Falls (and late of the 1st PA Light Artillery) and Miss Mary E. Drake of Newton, were married on March 25, 1865, at Maynord's Hotel, by Rev. Luther Peck. In the March 20, 1865, edition of the "North Branch Democrat ".

ISSAC SICKLER a respectable citizen of our county and constable of Exeter Township, accompanied by his own and another boy, was met on the public highway near his residence, by four assassins, from Luzerne County, who seemed to be acting under Military authority, brutally murdered him, without the slightest provocation, or even a pretext of justification. It is said, that upon being asked who he was, and giving his name, some conversation of an unimportant character occurred, and in which he said he thought he had a right to travel the road without molestation. Upon this, one of the murderers replied: "We'll see about that," and drawing a pistol, took deliberate aim and fired - at the same time the party drove on. Mr. Sickler, who was shot through the heart, fell and immediately expired. The murderers, seeing their victim fall, drove to Brown's Hotel, a mile or two distant, where they took supper and indulged in liquor. They coolly informed Dr. Morris that they had shot a man and told him, he had better go and see to him. Mr. Sickler with whom we were intimately acquainted, was a man of some property. He has never been drafted, and was not, we believe, liable to military duty. Had never, in any way, rendered himself liable to military control, surveillance or suspicion - and when overtaken and shot down like a dog in the streets, by the despicable minions of this accursed military despotism was in pursuance of his quiet duties as a farmer and citizen of the county. In the name of God, of justice, humanity and Christianity, and everything near and dear to freemen - when will there be an end to these things? Printed Feb. 15, 1865

Martial HOSEA, of Luzerne County, was shot by a man by the name of Noah Smith, of Newton Township, while attempting to arrest him a day or two since. We are told Hosea died from the effect of the wound, yesterday. We have not learned the particulars, but presume that Smith was either a drafted man or a deserter. We have heard of repeated acts of violence, outrage and terror, committed by this man, Hosea, upon quiet, unoffending citizens of this county, and presume, that like his brother, Marshal, who murdered Isaac Sickler yesterday, he had but little regard for human life or the rights of property. Printed Feb. 15, 1865

To the Public - ISAAC SICKLER, an industrious and worthy citizen of Exeter Township, who was brutally murdered by one of the posse of a Deputy Provost Marshal a few days ago, was the father of eight small children, seven of them girls, who with their mother depends upon his labor for support. He was in possession of a small piece of land which is encumbered to some extent. In view of these circumstances, and that the family of the deceased may retain their home, it is proposed that the citizens of the county who feel willing to do so, make the family a Donation visit on Thursday, the 2nd day of March next - Many citizens. Printed Feb. 22, 1865

Mitchell, only son of P. M. OSTERHOUT, died suddenly on the 18th of May, 1865, aged 13 years, 1 month. Printed May 24, 1865.

Mrs. HEISTER KEELER met with an unfortunate accident while returning from Pittston where she had been visiting her daughter. She fell from her heat in a fainting fit with her face against the carriage wheel. The well-trained horse neither stopped nor run and when she became conscious, she found herself severely bruised about the face and neck, and a part of one ear being gone. Dr. ~~Dornsife is attending~~ her and she is doing nicely now.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:
The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

All of the above children give father born PA, Mother born NY

Since Mile's first wife died in 1851, (or 1849) none of the above children could belong to her.
At this point do not know when he married Martha, but she seems a little young to have had Isabelle at the age of 14. Since there is quite a break in the years between Burns and Amon, it is possible that Martha is the mother of just the last two and there is another wife inbetween, which might be Jane Ann Smith.
Isabelle, Courtney, and Burns were of one wife
Amon and Jane of Martha A.
At this point need more information on this family.

.....

To complicate matters the "Wyoming Democrat" reports these deaths on March 17 of 1858:

1. Sarah Jane, eldest daughter of Miles and Jane Ann Avery, on 18th of Oct., 1857 in Lemon, aged 5 years, 1 month, 17 days.

2. Caroline, youngest daughter of Miles and Jane Ann Avery, died Febr. 28, 1858, aged 11 months and 24 days.

Samuel T. Flummerfelt

Notes

Though cannot be absolutely sure, believe Samuel T. is John's father so have included him. The following is his obit that was published in a local newspaper, Oct. 27, 1869.

SAMUEL T. FLUMMERFELT, of Tunkhannock Township, died September 28th, 1869, of Chronic Diarrhea, in the 6th year of his age. Brother Flummerfelt was born the 15th of December 1804, in Knowlton, Warren Co., New Jersey, and was married March 17, 1825 to Miss Mary Decker, by whome he had 12 children. Six of them, with their afflicted mother still reamin; the family being equally dived, half on one side and half on the other side of the Jordan of death. Brother Flummerfelt moved into this county about 20 years ago and settled on the farm where he died. He was converted and untied with the M. E. Church in 1821, and continued an active and efficient member for most of the time till his death. He took a deeper interest in religion for the last five months of his life then for some time before, though his health through the summer was better than usual and his death very unexpected until a week before his departure. He died in hope and peace, leaving a deeply afflicted family to mourn his loss. He was active, indistrious and successful farmer, a good neighbor, a kind husband and father, and an upright man, and his death was a great loss not only to his family but to the neighborhood. S. F. Brown

Also will of Samuel T. Flummerfelt who may have died the same year that Jacob did.

FLUMERFELT, SAMUEL T. of Tunkhannock Township, Wyoming Co., PA

Hi,

Vol. 1 & 2 are for sale at the society. Vol. 2 just came out last week - so not in time to mention it in the Feb. newsletter (that is now at the print stage). Each Volume is $37.10 (+ postage).

Basically there are a lot of pictures and articles that have been taken out of our local newspaper. (Since Cece and his brother Lyman published the local paper for years - there are a lot of pictures they have in their private files which also appear)

They have duplicated a lot of the pictures which have appeared in our Sesquicentennial Book (which we did in 1992 - $15.00 + post) - but also new ones.

Also last year the local newspaper (no connection with what Cece Krewson is doing - long story!) put out a book: Wyoming Co. The Last 100 Years. They covered from 1900-2000 and took out the main stories of the county for each year, pictures, newspaper ads, etc. Think this one is $22.50 (+ post), and is for sale at the New Age-Examiner Office.

We have all these books in our library - so if you want to look at them before purchasing you can.

Hope this helps,
Paula

Subject: Books

Hi Paula,

I just sent in my yearly membership check but had a question that perhaps you can answer. A friend of mine said that the WCHS had possibly for sale a book by the name of " Wyoming County Salutes the Millennium". At least he said it was in a newsletter from the WCHS. As perhaps there may have been 2 volumes? I was just wondering what these books were and if they are perhaps still for sale, price, content, etc.

Perhaps this was in the LEST WE FORGET publication for this February? Or has that one not been sent out as yet. It reminded me that I had not sent in my membership so that will be in the mail to you today. If that is where it talks about these books, I can wait until I get my copy. If not maybe you can give me a little information about them.

Are these books made up of what has already been in the LEST WE FORGET publications? Or is it new material put together by someone else? Just wondered as I would like to get as much information about Wyoming County as possible to add to our FITCH family files, and do already have all copies of your LEST WE FORGETs. Thanks for your trouble.

Notes
From J.T. Fitch, "Five Generations" page 133

"Mason and his brother, John," erected the first forge on the Susquehanna River, 1776.
In 1778 he was a soldier in Capt. Ransom's Co."

In an April 4 , 1803, letter to the editor of the Luzerne County Federalist called "Old Settlers in the County of Luzerne" on the Wyoming Controversy we find these signatures:
MASON FITCH ALDEN
JAMES BIDLACK
WILLIAM ALDEN .....not sure who Wm belongs to.

November 24, 1804.....from Luzerne County Federalist.....For Sale.....A compleat New Saw Mill, Braintrim, placed by MASON F. ALDEN, of Braintrim. This same saw mill had been offered in October by Reuben Crosby.

August 1811.....On Committee to prepare for the election for the Federalist Republicans.
MASON F. ALDEN and DANIEL STERLING for Braintrim Township

.....

1800 Census of Braintrim Township, Luzerne or Wyoming Co., PA

MASON FITCH ALDEN
3 males 16 to 26.....born 1774 to 1784
1 male 25 to 45.....born 1755 to 1774
1 male over 45.....born before 1755.....Mason Fitch Alden, son of Prince & Mary Fitch Alden
1 female 10 to 16.....born 1784 to 1790
1 female 16 to 26.....born 1774 to 1784
1 female over 45.....born before 1755.....Mary Thompson

Also find in 1800 Census of Braintrim Township another transcription that gives Mason 2 sons in the 16 to 26 age category and the rest is the same.

MASON FITCH ALDEN
2 males 16 to 26.....1774-1784
1 male 26 to 45.....1755-1774
1 male over 45.....before 1755.....Mason
1 female 10 to 16.....1784-1790
1 female 16 to 26.....1774-1784
1 female over 45.....before 1775.....wife

.....

1810 Census of Braintrim Township, Luzerne County, PA

MASON FITCH ALDEN
1 male under 10.....1800-1810
1 male 26 to 45.....1765 to 1784
1 male over 45.....before 1765
2 females under 10.....1800-1810
1 female 16 to 26.....1765 to 1784
1 female over 45.....before 1765
(This is probably the son Mason Fitch Alden)

Probable descendants of Mason Fitch Alden were Mason Fitch Alden who married Martha Hankinson, in Washington Twp., on Feb. 22, 1848 by Elder Scofield. and probably this same Mason Fitch Alden died July 23, 1884. Will dated Sept. 9, 1884, proved Aug. 23, 1884, mentioning wife, Martha. Sons, William, John S. and daughter, Sarah E.
Need to make the connection by finding the correct parents.

also MARTHA ALDEN, of Washington Township

Will dated.....April 2, 1890
Proved.....March 15, 1892
Will mentions:
widow of Mason F. Alden son: John S. Alden
dau: Sarah E.
Letters.....April 27, 1892
Inv. and App.....May 24, 1892

.....

Also a Mason Fitch Alden in the 1840 census of Washington Twp. age 20 to 30 (not with a family)

.....

The above family can be found in Washington Township, Wyoming Co., PA 1850 census #244

M. F. Alden.....36 M.....born PA.....Farmer, $2000.....1814
Martha.....36 F.....born NJ.....1824
William..... 1 M.....born PA.....1849

.....

Also found is William T. Alden in Washington Township, 1850 census #231

William T. Alden.....69 M.....born PA.....Farmer.....1781
Eunace.....62 F.....born CT.....1788

and at #230 we find:

A. V. Alden.....30 M.....born PA.....Merchant, married within the year...1820
Hannah.....25 F.....born PA.....1825

.....

There is also a William F. Alden in the 1830 census, Tunkhannock. At that time William had
1 son 10 to 15.....born 1815 to 1820
1 son 15 to 20.....born 1810-1815
1 male 40 to 50.....born 1780-1790.....probably William
1 female 40 to 50...born 1780-1790.....probably wife
Move this to the proper William F. Alden when we get it put together properly. This could be a son of Mason Fitch Alden. Perhaps the F was supposed to be "T" ?

1820 Census of Braintrim Township for William F. Alden
2 males under 10.....1810-1820
1 male 26 to 45.....1775-1794
1 female 16 to 26.....1794-1804
1 female over 45.....before 1775

.....

July 3, 1812 Luzerne Advertiser says:
Mason F. Alden died (no date)

July 10, 1812: Estate of Mason F. Alden, late of Braintrim Township, request payments and claims. Mary Alden, William T. Alden, Administrators, Braintrim.

.....

"Mason Fitch Alden was an early settler at Meshoppen, PA, in 1795. He was a descendant of John Alden and Priscilla Mullens" from Wyoming County History.

.....

An ad printed in the local newspapers of Tunkhannoc gives this:

$5 Reward!

Ran away from the constable of Washington township, Luzerne Co., PA on the 16th inst. John Beame, aged about 30 years, dark complexion, sunken eyes, and downcast look; had on a black wood hat, a pair of old boots with the tops cut off -- Said Beame had been arrested for bigamy and bound over for trial at the Court of Quarter Sessions. Any person who will arrest said Runaway and secure him in the jail of this county, shall received the above reward, and reasonable charges.

MASON F. ALDEN, Constable
Washington, June 16, 1841

.....

Possible grandson of Mason Fitch Alden was William Thompson Alden. The researcher feels that William's father was Mason Fitch Alden, Jr.

.....

1840 Census of Washington Township, Luzerne Co., PA ..... one Mason F. Alden. Not sure which generation

MASON F. ALDEN
1 male 20 to 30.....born 1810-1820 son or grandson??

.....

WILLIAM T. ALDEN 1840
1 male 15 to 20.....born 1820-1825
1 male 50 to 60.....born 1780-1790
1 female 50 to 60.....born 1780-1790

.....

This probably reinforces the fact that William Thompson Alden was a son of Mason Fitch Alden and named his son Mason Fitch Alden. These two were the only Aldens in Washington Township listed in 1840. This also might indicate that Mason F. Alden who was the Constable was the grandson, born between 1810-1820. Also possible that Mason Sr. also had a son Mason, Jr. and if so could be the son who was constable.
